Marshall Plan Success Is Held Issue Of Peace

Secretary Marshall Says U.S.
To Battle Issue Of World
Peace On Plan

BLAMES RUSSIA FOR PARLEY 'FLOP'

By JOHN A. REICHMANN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The United States is determined today to fight the issue of world peace out with Russia on the success or failure of the Marshall plan.

Secretary of State Marshall made the issue clear in a Laconic 16-minute radio speech reporting on the abortive London conference of the big four foreign ministers which failed to make any progress on drafting peace treaties for Germany and Austria.

Obstructionist Tactics

Marshall's brief address dwelt chiefly with the obstructionist tactics of Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov at the London meeting. Marshall reviewed in precise details the discouraging day-to-day debate in the foreign ministers' meeting. He declared:

"No real ground was lost or gained at the meeting except that the outlines of the problems and obstacles are much clearer.

"We cannot look forward to a unified Germany at this time. We must do the best we can in the area where our influence can be felt."

Marshall then set forth his belief that the war created a "political vacuum" in Europe and that until this vacuum is filled, there cannot be a healthy Europe.

Until a healthy European community has been established, he declared, "it does not appear possible that paper agreements can assure a lasting peace." Marshall added:

"Agreements between sovereign states are generally the reflection and not the cause of genuine acknowledgment of its agreement with this argument, Marshall implied, by its inalterable position at London. The secretary of state declared:

"The Soviet Union has recognized

Pa Newc Observes

A most unusual call was received by city firemen on Friday, at least unusual for this time of the year. The men were called to the Oakland district where a grass fire was in progress. It took some time to locate the brooms which are usually used in combating such fires.

Far away from its home was a car parked on North Mercer street Friday. The front of the car bore a Republic of Panama tag while the rear plate carried the designation Canal Zone. Evidently the owner of the car is vacationing in the United States.

Quite a number braved the cold weather to hear the exceptionally fine singing of the Ukrainian group last night on the Diamond. Hundreds heard the music over the address system in the downtown area.

While in some churches of the community there will be Christmas services on Sunday, December 27, in practically all of them there will be Christmas services tomorrow, in the shape of children's programs, special music, cantatas, etc.

Just in case you have forgotten someone, Postmaster Hanna states that every piece of mail received by noon, Wednesday, will be delivered. So if you happened to have forgotten about Aunt Melissa, and get a card from her on Wednesday morning, you can still rush out and mail one to her, provided you get it into the office by noon on Wednesday. After that time, you better send her a New Year card.

Senate Probers Await Anderson's List Of Grain Speculators

By FRANK B. ALLEN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—A senate committee pressed Edwin W. Pauley today for his promised personal records on grain transactions while it waited Agriculture Secretary Anderson's list of big-name commodity speculators.

Senate Appropriations Chairman Bridges (R) N. H. said he has directed the special Ferguson subcommittee to speed up the delivery of commodity market accounts that Pauley, special assistant to Army Secretary Royall, promised last week.

Sen. Ferguson (R) Mich., said his group asked Pauley several times this week about his records and failed to get a definite answer on when they will be available.

Disclosure Authorized

Meanwhile, Anderson said immediately after passage of legislation specifically authorizing disclosure of commodity exchange records that he would make them available sometime next week.

Ferguson indicated the committee would not press Anderson for the date, explaining that he had no knowledge of how long it would take the secretary to complete the information.

Bridges appointed the Ferguson subcommittee, which has been con-

Hospital Fund Drive Nears Half Way Mark; Next Report Monday

Spurred on by unprecedented gifts from industry and individuals again on Friday, at the second report, advance gifts and industrial division workers are pressing for further subscriptions to boost the Jameson Memorial hospital expansion fund total at their next meeting on Monday.

Friday's report sent the total raised to $332,610, or 44 per cent of the $750,000 goal.

Spearheading the medical staff's participation was Dr. Paul H. Wilson with a subscription of $5,000 to equip an operating room.

Another $5,000 personal subscription was made by James M. Smith Jr. and Mrs. Smith.

Largest industrial gift announced yesterday was for $20,000 from Elliott Bros. Steel Co. to memorialize a doctor's dining room and two four-bed wards.

Pennsylvania Engineering Co. and New Castle News each contributed $10,000, the latter to name a nurses' station in memory of Fred L. Rantz.

Associated Box Corp. subscribed $7,500.

Bidault Also Blames Soviet

Says Russia Was Responsible For Collapse Of Big Four London Parley

PARIS, Dec. 20.—(INS)—French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault added his voice today to the charges by other western power diplomats that Russia was responsible for the collapse of the recent Big Four foreign ministers meeting in London.

Bidault told the foreign affairs commission of the National Assembly that the parley failed because Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov tried to use it as a propaganda sounding board to rally certain German elements to the Soviet cause.

Similar to Marshall's Bidault's charge was similar to that made last night by Secretary of State Marshall in Washington, and a previous claim made by British Foreign Secretary Bevin.

The French minister, stressing that his country's policy concerning Germany has not changed, said France always will discuss the case with any of its allies.

He said the Paris government will pursue its previous efforts in order to obtain, if possible, a safeguard for France and world peace.

Loses His Wife
And Apartment

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 20.—(INS)—Studio Technician John Gilt once more is looking for a place to live.

Mrs. Mary J. Gilt, 31, charged yesterday in winning an annulment of their Las Vegas marriage last October that Gilt married her only to obtain her apartment.

The day after their marriage, she testified, Gilt locked her out of the living quarters and told her: "Now I've got your apartment."

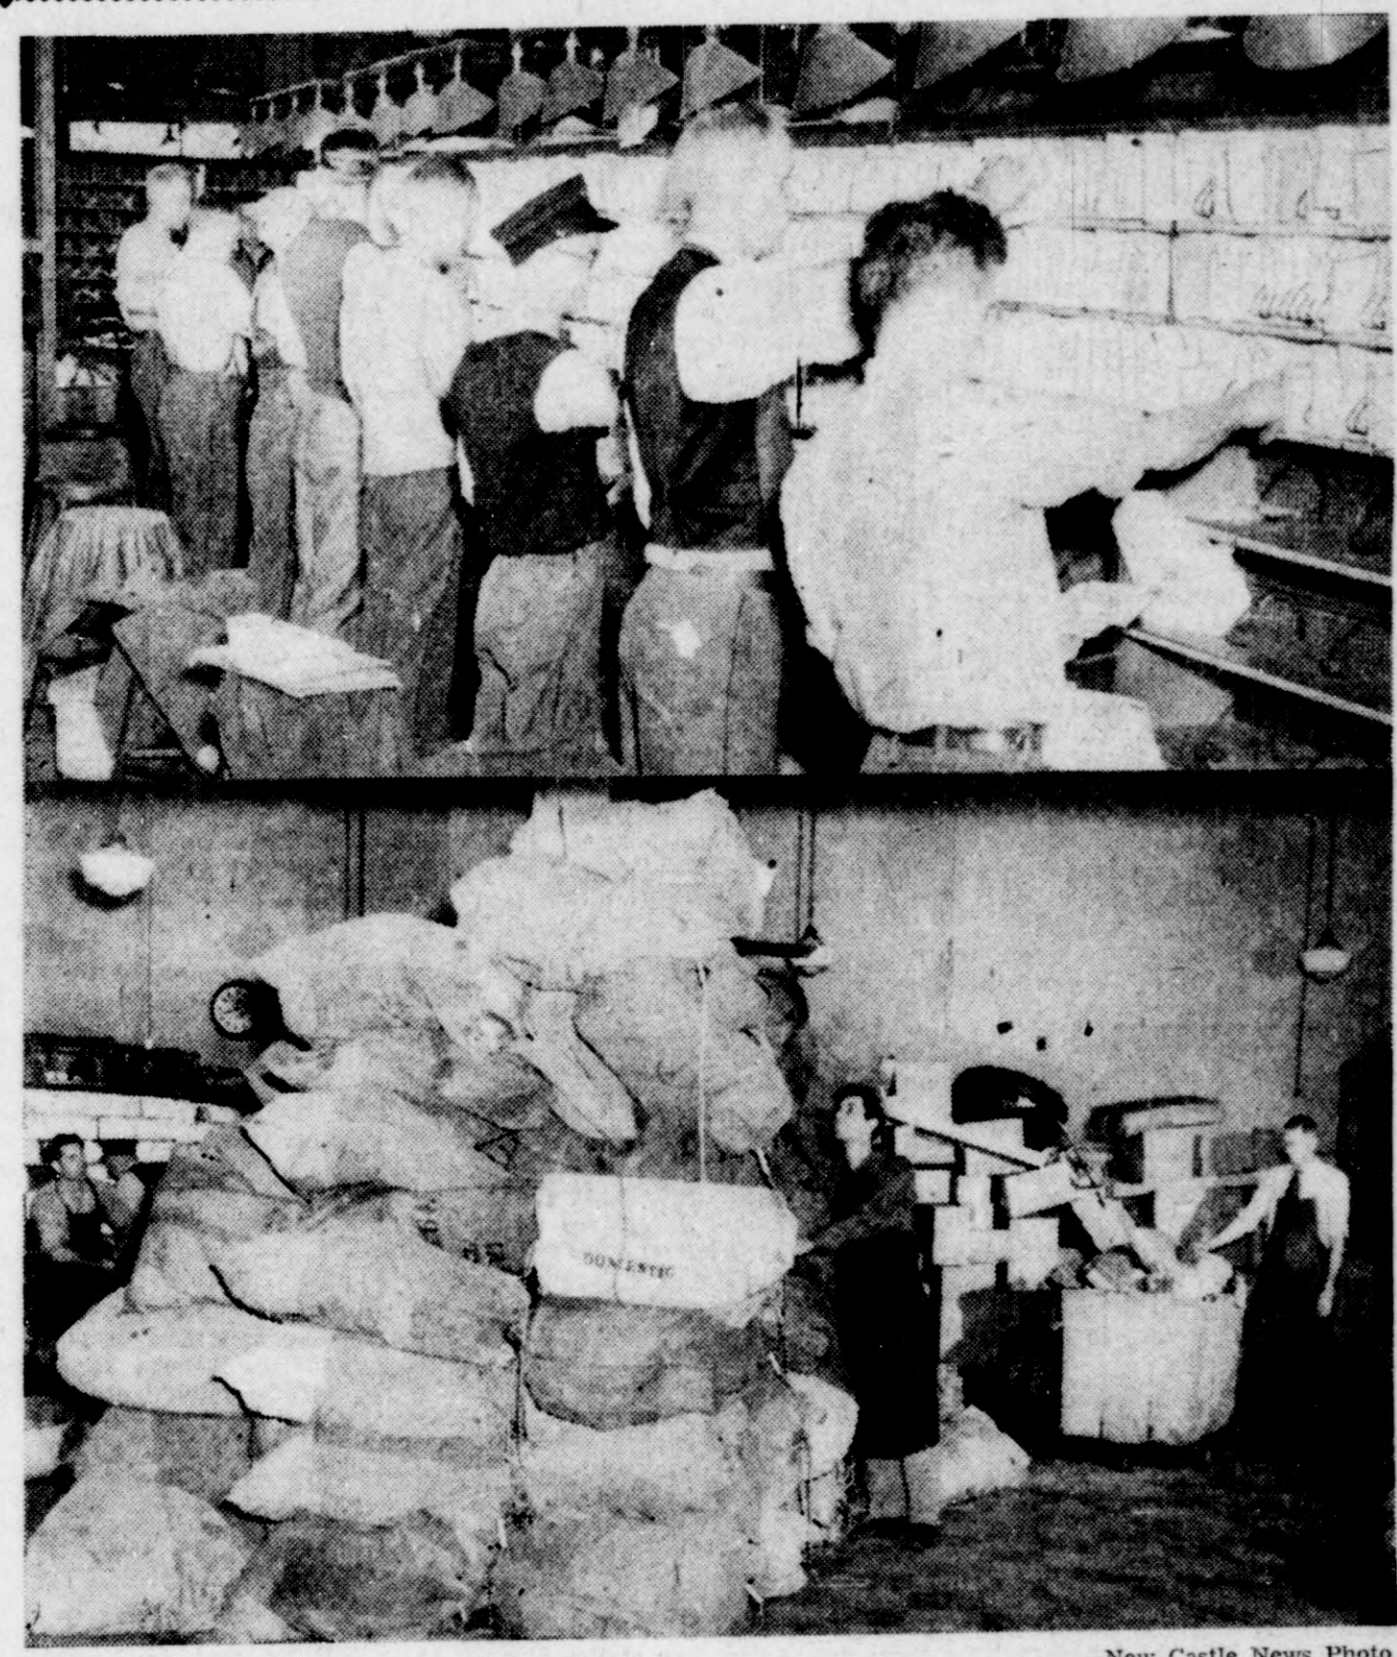

The court not only annulled the marriage but saw to it that she got her home back.

VALUABLE STAMPS

LANCASTER, Pa., Dec. 20.—(INS)—Isaac M. Groff, a retired Navy officer at Lancaster, today received Christmas greetings from Tientsin, China, bearing air mail stamps worth 31,000 Chinese dollars.

Groff, who served in China during the last war, said the card came from Meng Chin San, manager of a silk and woolen store.

HERE ARE YOUR CHRISTMAS CARDS AND PACKAGES

Above are shown Santa's helpers, part of the force at the local Post Office, getting your Christmas mail ready for distribution. In the top picture, veteran carriers are shown casing the mail, getting it ready for delivery. Below is shown Friday's big catch, a whole car load of parcel post, which contained 450 sacks, averaging around 30 pieces per sack, with 360 loose pieces in the background. Gazing up at the big pile is Sam Tranquillo, parcel post clerk; while in the background, Alex Valley, mail handler, looks on.

Locally, the Christmas rush is beginning to taper off. Postmaster William R. Hanna stated today, only 159,000 cancellations being recorded at the local office on Friday, a few thousand less than Thursday's record volume.

However, there are 750,000 pieces of mail which have been received for distribution, some inside the city, but most of it from outside sources. These are being worked over as fast as the staff here can get to it, and by Monday, most of it will be in the hands of local residents. Two deliveries will be made today and two on Sunday, Postmaster Hanna stated.

Meyers, Lamarre Facing Trial On Perjury Charges

Ordered To Appear In Washington For Arraignment On January 7

By CHARLES B. SEIB
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The District of Columbia Federal court issued warrants today for the arrest of Retired Maj. Gen. Bennett Meyers and his wartime associate, Blieriot Lamarre, both of whom must face trial for perjury.

Meyers, former deputy chief of air forces procurement, and the man who called him a liar and a "snake" are being ordered to appear in Washington on January 7 for arraignment.

Expected To Surrender

It was understood that Meyers and Lamarre will surrender voluntarily to Federal authorities in Brooklyn and Dayton, O., respectively. If they do so, they will be permitted to go free on bail—$2,000 for Meyers and $1,000 for Lamarre—pending arraignment.

Meyers' warrant was sent to U. S. Attorney Vincent Keogh of Brooklyn, whose jurisdiction covers the retired officer's home community of Haleside, N. Y., and Lamarre's warrant was sent to U. S. Attorney Ray O'Donnell in Dayton. The warrants are expected to arrive in those cities Monday morning.

Under the indictments returned yesterday, Meyers faces a maximum of 10 years in prison.

Pope Indicates Support For Marshall Plan

ROME, Dec. 20.—(INS)—Pope Pius today indicated wholehearted support of the Marshall plan and lashed out against subversive forces seeking to exploit "the misery of the proletarian classes."

The Pontiff, in a special Christmas encyclical letter, called upon all Catholics and especially children to pray for peace. He spoke of the "secret and astute calculation" of those who wish to undermine world harmony and work against the common good.

The supreme Pontiff appealed to "all Christians" to visit their churches "and pray to the divine infant to extinguish and banish the flames which are being menacingly agitated by hate into seditions and tumults."

Plane Forced Down On Luzon

MANILA, Dec. 20.—(INS)—A New Zealand Royal Air Force plane which crash-landed last night on the east-central coast of Luzon was sighted today by rescue planes of the U. S. Thirtieth Air Force.

The American planes radioed Clark Field that 12 persons aboard the grounded C-47 appeared uninjured and that the plane itself was not badly damaged.

The New Zealand aircraft was on a flight from Okinawa to Manila when one engine conked out and forced it to land. Before crash-landing the plane flashed a distress message to Clark Field saying it could no longer stay aloft with its one functioning engine.

The plane went down at Dilangan, 16 miles southwest of Casiguran, in Quezon province. A Catalina flying boat was being readied to pick up the stranded New Zealanders.

TRAFFIC GROUP DISCUSSES SAFETY

No recommendations for traffic improvement came from the meeting in The Castleton hotel on Thursday. A general discussion upon a possible change in traffic routing in the downtown section was had but no recommendations followed.

French Workers Rebel Against Soviet Orders

By ROBERT PARKER
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, Dec. 20.—(INS)—French workers, rebelling against the general labor confederation's Communist leadership, continued to gain recruits today.

Their leaders confidently predicted two million workers will soon be enrolled, fully a third of the confederation's membership.

Supports Rebels

The executive commission of the powerful Union of Postal, Telegraph and Telephone Workers threw its support behind the rebels.

It blamed the revolt on the Communist party which it charged with wanting to "make labor unionism an instrument of its power."

The P-T-T executive group issued a communique, bidding its members to join the new "force ouvriere" (workers strength) movement which was formed when delegates representing 1,500,000 CGT members voted to break away from the Communist-led organization.

Led by Socialist Leon Jouhaux, the minority group of anti-Communists decided to establish its own labor organization because it regarded the CGT's recent strike as part of Russian foreign policy aimed at defeating the Marshall plan.

Refuse Soviet Orders

Paris newspapers followed this line in their editorials, France Libre announcing the labor schism under a headline which proclaimed:

French workers refuse to follow Soviet orders.

Le Populaire, the official newspaper of the Socialist party, hailed formation of the new organization as a move "to end submission to the Russian yoke."

Christmas Ship Heads For Alaska

SEATTLE, Dec. 20.—(INS)—A seagoing Santa Claus will sail out of Seattle's Elliott Bay today with a bag full of candy, fruits and nuts for Alaska's youngsters.

Santa will stop at six Alaskan ports heralded by Christmas carols played over the ship's public address system.

The Alaska Steamship Lines, which is sponsoring the visit, dispatched its first Christmas ship in 1932 but was forced to discontinue the sailings during the past 10 years.

Special Session Of Congress Ends On Friday Night

Special Anti-Inflation Bill Is Passed In Closing Hours Of Session

STOPGAP AID BILL IS ALSO APPROVED

By WILLIAM THEIS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—GOP leaders began working on plans for the regular January session of congress today while most of their colleagues were heading home in the wake of a stormy 32-day special session.

Sen. Taft (R) Ohio, senate Republican chief, said he hoped to call his policy committee together during the day to consider the machinery for developing a GOP legislative program for 1948.

The major domestic achievement of the special session—the Taft-sponsored anti-inflation bill—was

Rotary And Rotary Anns Have Christmas Party For Neighborhood House Children

PARTY LAST NIGHT AT THE CASTLETON

Children of the Neighborhood House numbering 43, with their leaders the Misses Christine and Jean Butler, were entertained at a Christmas party given by members of the Rotary and Rotary Ann clubs in The Castleton ballroom Friday evening.

Musical recordings of carols were played as the ballroom filled with the group of young guests and members of the sponsoring clubs.

Climaxing the evening for the children was the arrival of Santa Claus, hearty bearded and jovial. Told that he was about to appear, the jingle of sleighbells was heard, and in he came with his red cap and high with gifts and balloons.

First Santa handed around the balloons and then, with the aid of his helpers, distributed gifts to each child, making the occasion a memorable one for the youngsters.

London Papers Generally Hail Truman's Plan

LONDON, Dec. 20.—(INS)—London newspaper today generally hailed President Truman's European recovery plea but one London opinion expressed fears that British opinion might be "prejudiced against the Marshall plan" by its shipping provisions.

While welcoming the president's message, in which he asked congress to make $17 billion available for Europe's industrial restoration, the London Daily Mail pointed out that some political observers were "surprised" by Mr. Truman's proposal in reference to shipbuilding in Europe.

Mr. Truman recommended that war-built shipping be made available to Europe, under the Marshall plan, adding that "because of world steel shortages" there should be "reduction or deferment of projected shipbuilding schedules on the part of participating countries."

The Daily Mail said: "If put in effect, this (proposal) would prejudice the Marshall plan in the eyes of Britain."

The London Daily Graphic termed Mr. Truman's message "an example of responsible, Democratic leadership at its best," while the London News Chronicle remarked that "one of the most important and ambitious schemes in history is really beginning to take shape."

Congress Plan For Europe Aid May Develop

Many Changes Indicated In Truman's Recommendations On Marshall Plan

DRASTIC CUTS IN FUNDS PROBABLE

By RAYMOND WILCOVE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Congress may cast aside President Truman's recommendations on the Marshall plan and adopt its own program of aid for Europe.

There were strong intimations of this in Capitol Hill in the wake of a presidential message recommending the expenditure of 17 billion dollars through June 30, 1952 to assist in the postwar reconstruction and economic rehabilitation of 16 non-Soviet nations.

Republican leaders said privately that Congress, when it reconvenes in regular session Jan. 6, is almost certain to:

Reduce Funds Asked

1. Approve some long-range program of aid to Europe.

2. Reduce drastically the funds requested by the president, including his recommendation for an initial 15-month appropriation of six billion, 800 million dollars beginning next April 1.

3. Create an independent government corporation to administer the program.

The House leadership looked with great favor on the recommendations of the Herter Committee, a special 21-member House group which made an extensive study of European conditions last summer.

The committee, directed by Rep.

Ukrainians Sing On Public Square

Polish Singers To Be Heard Tonight At 7:30 In Program Of Christmas Music

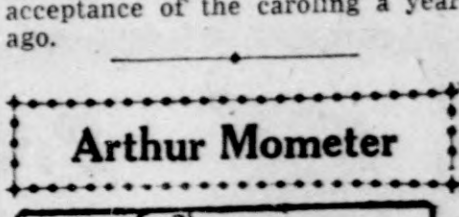

Centuries of history were represented in some of the songs sung Friday night on the public square by the Ukrainian chorus. At least two numbers went back centuries, one of them being a song that was sung by the Ukrainians when they were in slavery some 800 years ago.

The chorus was directed by Rev. Stephen Musychuk, pastor of Holy Trinity Ukrainian Orthodox church. The chorus sang "a cappella" and pleased in both languages but particularly in the Ukrainian language.

Tonight the Polish singers will be heard at 7:30 from the public square. Directing will be Miss Marie A. Dutkiewicz, director of music for SS Philip and James church. Like the other national groups, part of tonight's program will be in English and part in Polish.

The Christmas carol singing is a presentation of the Merchants Division of the Greater New Castle Association. Under the chairmanship of Ross D. Rosenberger, the caroling has been done well this year and adds to the fine public acceptance of the caroling a year ago.

Ecclesian Clubs Have Children's Christmas Party

Over 100 Kiddies Receive Treat At Yuletide Program-Party Friday Evening

Albeit a trifle earlier than Christmas Eve, but over 100 kiddies met Santa Claus on Friday evening, the occasion being the annual Christmas party sponsored by the Ecclesian club in conjunction with the Women's Ecclesian club. The club rooms on South Jefferson and South streets were gayly decorated for the party, and the activities got under way with the singing of Christmas carols. Santa Claus in the person of John Mariacher distributed the gifts of candy, oranges and apples to the kiddies and the program of the evening followed with Bert Torchio as master of ceremonies. The Jingle Bell dance was performed by Mary Ann Cuba, Mimi Betka and Melanie Hammond. An acrobatic number was given by Susie Russell, and a toe dance by Anna Mae Cubellis, and a tap dance by Ceola Engle. Accompanying as pianist was Emma Shaffer. The adults attending were also treated last evening, and tasty refreshments were served. Lee Houk and Mrs. Mary Cuba, as co-chairmen worked diligently to make this year's yule party a great success. They were assisted by Mrs. Wanda Zarilla, Mrs. Mary Clingan, Mrs. Jane McAuley, Bert Torchio, Bob Torchio, Art Mitter, William Clingan, Ray McAuley and Mike King.

Accusing the CGT's Communist leaders of transforming unions into "agencies or propaganda and political agitation," the Socialist paper added: "Finally, on precise orders of the Comintern, they launched the senseless strikes which amounted to suicide." Le Populaire said that Jouhaux, who resigned as secretary-general of the CGT, also is relinquishing important international labor posts but will remain as president of the French national economic council.

the situation in its frank declaration of hostility and opposition to the European recovery program (the Marshall plan). "The success of such a program would necessarily mean the establishment of a balance in which the 16 western nations, who have bound their hopes and efforts together, would be rehabilitated, strong in the forms of government which guarantee true freedom, opportunity to the individual, and protection against the error of governmental tyranny."

Issue Is Clear Cut
"The issue is really clear cut and I fear there can be no settlement until the coming months demonstrate whether or not the civilization of western Europe will prove vigorous enough to rise above the destructive effects of the war and restore a healthy society."

Molotov Unwilling
Marshall charged Molotov with an unwillingness to discuss the ultimate boundaries of the German state as a preliminary to discussing Germany's future. He also castigated Molotov for seeking to establish a central German government without creating a Germany politically and economically unified.

Marshall noted that the western powers had sought to achieve these objectives previously but had been stalemated by the Soviet Union. The secretary said that Molotov's opposition to a centralized German government as a preliminary to a peace treaty was "the final clear evidence of his purpose to utilize the meeting as an opportunity for propaganda declarations which would be pleasant to German ears."

mum prison sentence of 60 years on three charges that he lied to the Senate War Investigating committee and three charges that he induced Lamarre to lie. Lamarre, who was one of the most damaging witnesses against Meyers at the Senate hearings, faced 30 years in prison in three charges that he lied to the committee during the secret hearings that preceded last month's sensational open session. Lamarre "purged" himself in the public hearing by telling the truth and it was believed that this fact would be taken into consideration by the court. ### CONGRESS PLAN FOR EUROPE AID MAY DEVELOP

Herter (R) Mass., recommended that an independent agency, to be known as the emergency foreign reconstruction authority, be set up with a capital of five hundred million dollars to handle the program. Cuts In Aid Funds
Congress adjourned its special session last night—after appropriating 522 million dollars in stopgap aid for France, Italy and Austria, 18 millions for China, and 340 millions for American occupied zones in Germany, Austria, Korea and Japan. The amount voted for European aid was 75 million dollars less than requested by the president, while a cut of 150 million dollars was made in the sum asked for army occupation costs. The stopgap funds will be used through March 31, while the additional money voted for the occupied areas is for the current fiscal year ending next June 30.

Convene January 6
Congress will convene for its second regular session Jan. 6. At that time, the House Foreign Affairs Committee will launch hearings on the Herter bill, embodying the recommendations of the special committee. Similar hearings also probably will be held soon after the session opens by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Under the Herter proposal, the government corporation would be entirely independent of the state, which is handling the stopgap aid program. The corporation would have the power to handle foreign aid, determine in what form it is to be made, purchase commodities, make contracts and create subsidiary foreign corporations to exercise its authority abroad.

The corporation would consist of eight members and would remain in existence until Jan. 1, 1954. It would have a capital stock of a half-million dollars, subscribed by the United States. Funds would be raised under the second liberty bond act and treated as a public debt.

SENATE PROBES AWAIT ANDERSON'S LIST OF SPECULATORS

ducting the "public-figure" speculation inquiry, as an interim group to receive the Anderson list whenever it is ready and make an analysis to present to the committee next month.

Resolution Approved
Public disclosure of the previous secret list appeared certain after President Truman's approval of the special resolution removing whatever legalistic road blocks that stood in the way of such action. Anderson insisted earlier that he would make the list public anytime he gave it to the senators, but he refused to divulge the names in a closed-door session only.

It appears certain that Anderson will announce the names of big speculators to the public the moment he sends the documents to Capitol Hill. He is specifically authorized by the new law to give the information to the public. With many senators out of the city, the subcommittee assigned Tom Graves, chief of the appropriations group's professional staff, to receive the Anderson report and begin analyzing it. Graves also was assigned to make a study of Pauley's transactions over the past two years, which includes the period during which Pauley served as President Truman's representative in a world-wide study of war reparations.

Rev. P. K. Scott Taken By Death

Word has been received of the death of Rev. Paul K. Scott, statistician of the Erie annual conference. The death occurred Thursday, December 17, from a heart attack at New Bethlehem, Pa. Rev. Scott was just recently appointed to the Methodist church in New Bethlehem and had only served as its pastor since September. He had served previously at Reynolds, Brockway, Valier, North Girard and Reno, Pa., and at Cherry Creek and Salamanca, N. Y. Funeral services are being held today at New Bethlehem. Rev. Scott had been the statistician of the conference for the past eight years and had been an assistant statistician for ten years previous. At the closing session of the conference he refused to be re-elected due to his health. He was widely known throughout the church because of his official position.

delivered to the White House shortly before congress adjourned Jan. 6. Democratic leaders predicted that President Truman would sign the "voluntary" control bill with express reluctance foreshadowing a larger battle over inflation curbs in the next session.

See Major Issue
Regardless of the president's action, spokesmen for both parties viewed the living cost problem as the major issue of the coming session—as well as of the 1948 presidential campaign. Taft, who pushed through the GOP anti-inflation bill after house leaders hit a Democratic road-block, said he wanted to begin work on a "definite program."

The senate leader recalled that when Republicans assumed control of both houses last January they "took things up one at a time" without an advance legislative agenda. He emphasized, however, that the present discussions would not deal with specific legislation, but with the steps to be taken in deciding on content of the Republican program.

Compromise Aid Bill
House and senate adjourned within 15 minutes of each other last night after adopting a compromise appropriation bill providing funds for interim European aid, relief for occupied areas and reclamation projects at home. Taft's bill authorizing voluntary allocation of scarce commodities, a partial answer to President Truman's plea for drastic anti-inflation controls, passed the house after Democrats failed to defeat a "gag" rule blocking amendments to the measure.

The bill as sent to President Truman would: 1. Authorize voluntary allocation and priority agreements on scarce commodities, exempting participants from the anti-trust laws when such agreements are approved by the attorney general. 2. Extend export controls for one year with authority for the president to consider price criteria in issuing export licenses. 3. Continue the transportation equipment allocation powers and restore the president's wartime power to restrict grain used by distillers until Jan. 31, 1948.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. Oestreicher, INS Foreign Director

Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin's grave statement that Great Britain "cannot go on" with international negotiations in the hostile atmosphere engendered by Soviet propaganda left the world mystified today.

It is obvious—for Bevin said so—that the British government is about to make a major decision. But just what this decision is to be remains anybody's guess.

One possibility, of course, is the much talked about tripartite agreement establishing a co-related Anglo-French-American zone in western Germany.

Deny Plan Anticipated
Both Bevin and Secretary of State Marshall, however, have denied Russian charges that plans for such an arrangement were made in advance of the collapsed conference.

Another step might be to cancel the trade agreement just concluded between Britain and Soviet Russia.

But England is gravely in need of the grain she is to receive in exchange for machinery and other materials and might get the worst of the bargain in such an event.

Or at the worst there could be severance of diplomatic relations. This, however, is highly improbable, although such ruptures no longer invariably foreshadow war as they did during past history.

It is quite likely that Bevin and Prime Minister Attlee simply have not made up their minds what they want to do.

British foreign policy has not always been the best in the world. But at least it is long-range and never improvised.

Only the poorly-informed were surprised, for example, when formal announcement was made of projected British withdrawals from India and Palestine. That had been decided upon years ago. The Attlee government merely found the present time ripe.

Judging by the present attitude of the Soviet government, it seems hardly likely that the Kremlin could be "shocked" into more polite behavior by a mere British threat to deal with western Germany bereft of Russian cooperation.

That would merely allow the Communist press to help "I told you so" and nothing whatever would be gained.

There may be scant hope, but one avenue does remain open. This would be a reversion to the wartime conferences of the Allies when Roosevelt, Churchill and Stalin met personally and men like Molotov stood behind the chairs with their hats in their hands.

Stalin is in poor health and hasn't shown any enthusiasm for such an idea, while America and Britain can hardly go whimpering to the Kremlin door. But a top-drawer final conference is still not entirely out of the question.

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

I have just returned from a trip. It was a very short trip but on it I have seen a lot.

It was really two trips I made. One to the attic and the other to the cellar.

We are putting up the storm windows throughout the house and it was my job to bring them down from the attic where they are stored during the summer.

I don't go to the attic very often, so the trip was interesting.

You have no idea of all the things I saw!

Old suitcases with straps and handles torn off.

A dresser with one of the drawers missing and one of the legs broken off.

Old mirrors, chairs, trunks, lamps with and without shades, and a filing cabinet that I didn't know we still had.

I looked in the filing cabinet. Letters fifteen years and more old.

Old checkbooks, canceled checks, bills long paid and pictures of people whom I didn't even recognize any more.

I spent at least two hours in that attic and forgot all about the storm windows.

My wife was out shopping and when she came back I intended to talk to her about throwing out a lot of the old junk.

But I came to my senses before it was too late.

Having been married all these years I realized that no husband in his right mind ever suggests to his wife what to do with the stuff in the attic.

To a woman the word "junk" never applies to anything in her own domain but only to the precious things carefully collected and preserved by her husband.

Later in the day I had to go down into the cellar.

There was water on the floor and I had to have a consultation with the plumber about putting in a sump pump.

Again I looked around. Stacks and stacks of old newspapers which my wife had carefully preserved for the junkman who advertised "Highest prices paid for paper" and who would probably give her about a quarter for the whole mess.

An old bathtub. A chipped wash basin. Old barrels and boxes and crates. A kind of pipes and joints, and an ancient water pump that has been out of order for Heaven knows how long.

In a wee small voice I suggested to my wife that maybe it would be a good idea to clean out the stuff in the cellar.

"You leave my cellar alone," she said. "I'll take care of that."

Next year I shall take another trip into the attic and the cellar.

I bet you all the "junk" will still be there and a whole lot more added to it.

God bless our women!

Hints On Etiquette

When you share a desk and telephone with an office mate in a business office and you use the phone, do make sure you put the instrument back where the desk mate can reach it easily when he wishes to use it.

We know definitely that Santa Claus time is right around the corner, for last night it was our pleasure to impersonate the old fellow and present gifts at two different parties . . . it's always interesting to play this roll and to watch the small ones as they come near the Santa Claus . . . some, the wee ones, can't seem to accept the point at all once they are between smiles and tears. Then we have that large group of pre-school children who eat up the idea that there is a Santa Claus . . . what stories they tell and what presents they would like to have left under the tree and in their stockings for Christmas morning. Then we find the school children, starting with the second grade, who have some doubt in their mind as to the identity of Santa.

Then we jump from the third grade to a group in their late teens and early twenties who definitely believe there must be a Santa. Especially the female species of this group, or should we say exclusively the female species.

In our small household we have one who is too small to realize what is going on . . . another who definitely believes in the "old duffer" and one (female) who happens to be in the second grade, and who this year is playing the game very cautiously. Her theme is to believe or not to believe, that is the question. It's all very amusing and we all seem to be enjoying the pre-Christmas preparation.

In addition to getting ready for next Thursday we have another big problem that we must solve within the next few hours . . . that of a wedding anniversary. The first ten years of married life, someone said, are the most difficult . . . as we look back over the past ten years, we pause and give a silent prayer that nothing within the next ten years, or the ten years following that, or the ten following that, and many years beyond, will occur as has occurred in the past ten. Need we say more? . . . let's put our troubles aside and go out and have fun chilluns.

From Me To You

By MESEALL

Shiver me timbers . . . was a wee bit on the chilly side this morning . . . could it be that this next week will find the ground covered with snow . . . we hope. Even though it would probably cause considerable trouble in transportation and in navigating on foot, we do hope that there will be snow on Christmas Day.

We know definitely that Santa Claus time is right around the corner, for last night it was our pleasure to impersonate the old fellow and present gifts at two different parties . . . it's always interesting to play this roll and to watch the small ones as they come near the Santa Claus . . . some, the wee ones, can't seem to accept the point at all once they are between smiles and tears. Then we have that large group of pre-school children who eat up the idea that there is a Santa Claus . . . what stories they tell and what presents they would like to have left under the tree and in their stockings for Christmas morning. Then we find the school children, starting with the second grade, who have some doubt in their mind as to the identity of Santa.

Then we jump from the third grade to a group in their late teens and early twenties who definitely believe there must be a Santa. Especially the female species of this group, or should we say exclusively the female species.

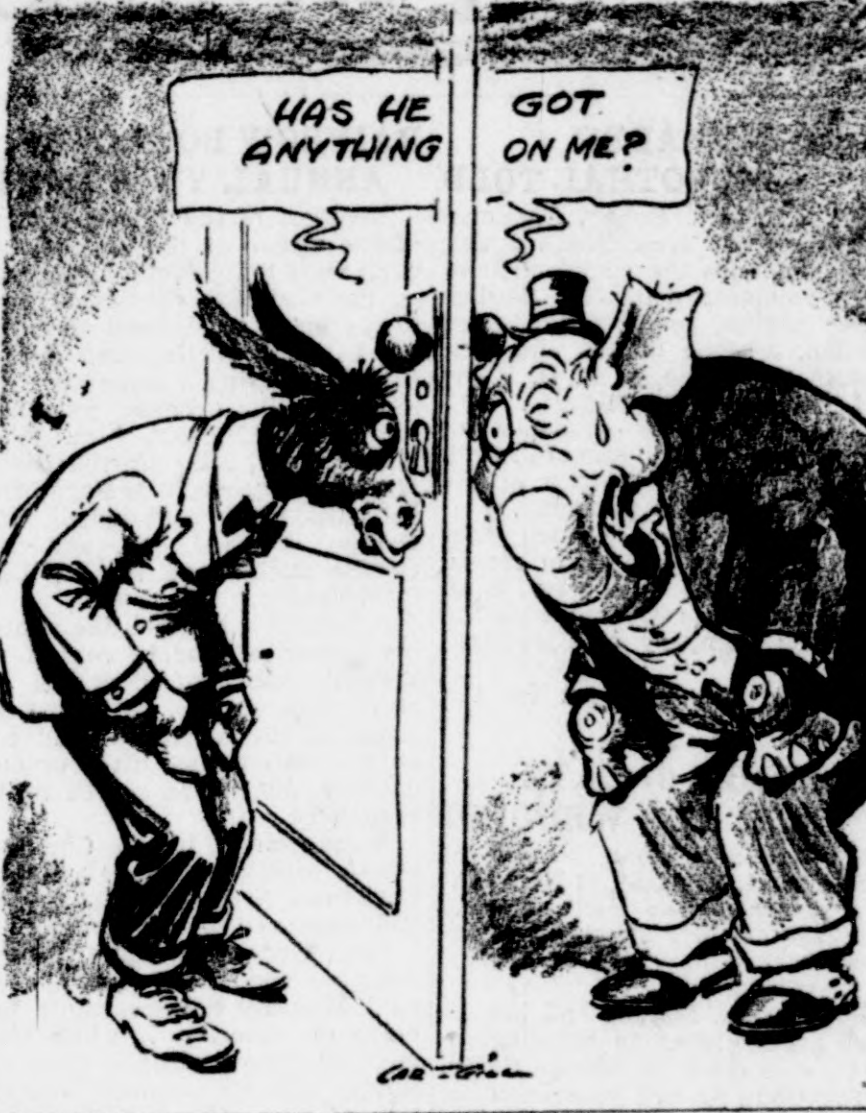

In our small household we have one who is too small to realize what is going on . . . another who definitely believes in the "old duffer" and one (female) who happens to be in the second grade, and who this year is playing the game very cautiously. Her theme is to believe or not to believe, that is the question. It's all very amusing and we all seem to be enjoying the pre-Christmas preparation.

In addition to getting ready for next Thursday we have another big problem that we must solve within the next few hours . . . that of a wedding anniversary. The first ten years of married life, someone said, are the most difficult . . . as we look back over the past ten years, we pause and give a silent prayer that nothing within the next ten years, or the ten years following that, or the ten following that, and many years beyond, will occur as has occurred in the past ten. Need we say more? . . . let's put our troubles aside and go out and have fun chilluns.

Speaking Of 'Wheat Speculators'

Role Essayed By Wallace

(By THOMAS L. STOKES)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Politics is an excellent laboratory for the study of the human species.

Politicians, as we so well know, live in glass test-tubes. They are constantly on exhibit. They wear their hearts on their sleeves. In them we see ourselves—thank Heaven that we don't have to be on such public display—which is what makes politics and politicians ever intriguing.

Thwarted ambition or pique or some injury or injustice or imagined injury or injustice will cause them to do things and say things for which often they do not recognize the real motive. Frequently they rationalize it into something else, maybe something noble and high-minded. And that may be involved there, too, and sincerely. Motives usually are mixed, so it is hard to pin any particular one down.

Politics is probably no more exaggerated in politics than in any other career, profession or business, only it is more open to general public gaze. The ambition to be president is a terribly consuming fire that flames up so brightly at times that it distorts a man's vision if it does not actually blind him.

Not long since we had the case of Jim Farley. The bitterness that eventually developed in him toward Franklin D. Roosevelt—after he had worked so tirelessly and faithfully to name him president—became obvious in time. But how much he, himself, wanted to be president we never knew until those memoirs came out under his name.

Now we have the case of Henry Wallace, not a simple one either.

Henry Wallace might have been president today, and that is something to keep in mind. He was vice president and in direct line of succession when he was dropped by President Roosevelt as his running-mate for Harry S. Truman at the 1944 convention. But—and here is a complication—for a man who wanted to be vice president again, and possibly president, he did something that few would do in making that frank and courageous speech to the 1944 convention, before balloting began. He told exactly what he stood for, which was contrary to the views of so many who sat before him with power to choose.

Went Through Campaign
He took his dismissal gallantly and went through a rigorous ordeal of campaigning for the Roosevelt-Truman ticket. Taken back into the Roosevelt family circle as secretary of commerce, he remained in the Truman administration until the dispute over foreign policy involving Secretary of State Byrnes when he was summarily dismissed by President Truman.

As a private citizen again, Mr.

Wallace performed a service in speaking out plainly on issues, in warning against the drift away from peace, in warning against the too strong military influence in the present administration, in pointing out its failure to maintain a dynamic progressivism. He said things that needed to be said.

But of late he has been talking and behaving strangely, and certainly out of character. Such a statement as the one that he would vote for Senator Taft of Ohio against the president just doesn't seem to fit into the role he had selected for himself. The loose talk seems to need some other explanation.

Now a third-party movement seems to be developing about him in a way to suggest his encouragement. He could not possibly win, as he knows. A valid aim would be creation of another great party, a progressive party, but that too, he should be able to see now is impossible. Leading progressives won't go along, as they are demonstrating.

Some believe a Wallace third party might serve chiefly to defeat President Truman. Without trying to assign any single motive in a complex character it might properly be asked if that is a motive, perchance one nurtured by something out of the past. The role Mr. Wallace assumed earlier, to work within the party to try to keep it progressive, seemed more logical and more in keeping with his best political experience.

That, too, would serve the cause of progressivism generally. For a third party, by weakening the Democrats, would likely encourage the GOP old guard to try to nominate a standpat conservative, since a split in the opposition would make the election of any Republican much easier.

Take Heart! Only 4 Days More

By PAUL GALLICO

Whoa there, brother! Get a grip on yourself! Don't give way to panic. Only four days more and then it's all over. Take heart! Gallico is standing by you.

Clip this article. Don't lose it. Carry it around with you in your pocket and consult it from time to time. It's your anchor in the storm. It's the cool, friendly hand stretched out to soothe the fevered brow. It's the voice of reason sounding through the hurly-burly. It's Sven-gail, or, if you insist, Evengailco saying to you: "You CAN get through this Christmas without blowing high, wide and handsome."

I'm your friend. Just listen to me, chum. That's all I ask.

Pre-Christmas Terror
Do you feel that pre-Christmas terror clutching at your throat? Are you reaching for your hat, coat and galoshes and running for the door? Ah! I knew it. You've been looking over the Christmas presents you have collected for the Missus, the kids, your rich Uncle George, Cousin Ella, and the Joneses. One moment they seemed like a fine collection of gifts, all nicely tied up in tissue paper with red ribbon and Christmas stickers, and the next it suddenly came over you that it was nothing but a bunch of junk and you'd better rush out and get something decent for everybody before it's too late. Just like a house of cards collapsing.

Now, wait a minute. That's what I'm here for. Just sit down quietly a moment in this nice chair. Now look me in the eye and repeat after me slowly: "There are really fine presents in those packages. I have spent all I can afford. I selected them with love, and, besides, it's what they asked for. Yes, those are really first class presents. I only feel this way because I've seen them and they haven't. They're going to love them when they open them. They're going to love them . . . They're going . . ."

Ah! That's Better
Ah, that's better. The wild light is dying from your eye. Pulse and respiration normal again. You see how simple it all . . . Oh, oh! Come back here! I know that look, the furrowed brow, the glassy stare, the beads of sweat upon the lip. You've remembered someone you've forgotten. You're going to dash out into the Christmas whirl and buy something.

Do you know what will happen to you when you get caught up in that last-minute department store frenzy? You will forget completely who you are getting something for, or what, or how many. You'll just buy and buy and buy for the sake of buying. You'll come home with the gold-dunest collection of useless junk and maybe the little helpmeet won't give you "what for?"

Whom Did You Forget?
Well, that's what I'm here for. Quick, now, out with it! Whom did you forget? Oh, the Smithingtons, eh? Gotta buy 'em something. Chafing dish, Steuben glass, travelling case, silver cocktail shaker . . . Whoa, boy, whoa! Quiet, I say. You're trembling in every limb. There now. Do you know those things cost money? Do you know what the Smithingtons have got for you? I can tell you. Never mind how I know, I've got second sight. It's a calendar. Mrs. Smithington won it at a bridge party last July. She took third prize on account of she bid a grand slam in spades, doubled and redoubled and didn't have enough of them. That's Mrs. Smithington for you. She's had it sitting up in her closet since summer, wrapped to look like a solid gold tie clasp from Cartier's. Will YOU look silly when you open it? Send her a Christmas card and forget it. Feeling better?

It's all right now. You can go out. You needn't be afraid. I'm right with you. You've got me in your pocket, the pal of the pater familias. Nothing can happen to you.

Choked-Up Feeling
Ah, ah! I see you pausing in front of that jewelry store window. You're looking at that diamond and ruby clip. You're getting all dewey-eyed and choked up thinking about the expression on the face of the Missus when you hand it to her. You're thinking of going in hock for it, selling some stock, borrowing on the life insurance and violent hands on the dough you've been putting away for Junior's education.

Steep now. Lean on me for a minute. Now, turn your head just a little this way and look next door. There, to the right. See? Where the sign says "BAR AND GRILL"? That's it. Right in there. One-two. In we go. Mind the step. Now, tell the man in the white coat behind the long counter to give you a dry Martini. Down the hatch. That bauble beginning to fade? Have another one on me. She'll love you just as much without the ice. Sure, it was a sweet dream and bless you for it, but you both know you can't afford it. All gone now?

Merry Christmas, brother!

State Police Say:

As a safety suggestion:
Place a transparent sticker on your speedometer dial and under the figures 40-50-60-70 place the following numbers:

(40)	58	(50)	73	(60)	88
	134		192		259
		(70)	102
			335

The upper figures represent the feet per second you are traveling at the various speeds. The lower figures represent the distance in feet it would take you to stop under ideal conditions. A speedometer registering 50 miles per hour does not refer to the driver that he is approaching an intersection or a blind curve at 73 feet per second, or that it would take 192 feet to stop if another car suddenly crossed his path.

The World

and the Mud Puddles

NOT MUCH LEFT
A recent bulletin of the Department of Commerce gives an interesting analysis of personal expenditures by Americans in 1946. The aggregate sum under this heading was $143.7 billion, more than double the total for 1939. While food, clothing and shelter were the main items for personal spending, it is noted that about four hundred million dollars went for restaurant tips and a similar amount for taxi-cab fares and tips. Over two and one-half billion dollars went for "personal care," almost half of it to beauty and barber shops. Doctors and Dentists got two and one-half billion dollars, while funeral and burial fees totaled about eight hundred fifty million dollars. Reading material, including newspapers, magazines, and books called for one and one-half million dollars, and musical instruments—mostly radio—for over one billion.

Figuring the national income in the neighborhood of one hundred ninety billion dollars, deduction of $143.7 billion for personal expenditures on its face would leave a considerable surplus for savings and investment. It doesn't figure out that way, however, for the reason that taxes enter the picture. While the total assessments paid by individuals are not quoted in the bulletin, it is probable that they ate up the bulk of what was left after living and other expenses.

Dismiss Charges In D'Antonio Case

District Attorney Nolle Prosses Robbery Charge Against Leonard D'Antonio—Case Closed

OTHER EVENTS IN COURT HOUSE

Upon recommendation of District Attorney Leroy K. Donaldson, the robbery case against Leonard D'Antonio has been nolle prossed, or in other words the case has been dropped. No further trial will be held.

D'Antonio was convicted of robbery of the Wasilewski grocery store on Hamilton street, in October 1946. Convicted at the same time was Samuel Sams, who confessed to the robbery and implicated D'Antonio.

Prior to the trial Mr. D'Antonio was given a habeas corpus hearing and at the time it was felt the evidence against him was rather thin. The jury convicted him but Judge W. Walter Brahm felt there was sufficient grounds for a new trial and granted a motion to that effect.

Mr. Donaldson said in his petition for a nolle prosequi that the evidence in the case did not warrant further trial.

MUGGS AND SKEETER

BY WALLY BISHOP

News' Scout Tells About Local Folks In Florida

By JAMES P. CALDWELL

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Dec. 16.—I have been so busy doing nothing since coming here, that I have not had time to check up on New Castleites, except to make one get a ticket for over parking, but he threatens to slaughter me if I write home about it.

So far this season no tourists have had to sleep in their cars, or in the police station. The crowd is several thousand under last year. Hotels are pretty well booked up for the period after Christmas, but there are plenty of accommodations at present. In some hotels rates are higher than last year. There are still apartments and plenty of rooms in private houses, where "vacancy" signs are displayed. Some signs have an alluring appeal, such as one which reads: "Guests Interior Modernized"; another "Tourist Taken In" and "Bath With Hot Water". These rooms set tourists back fifteen to twenty-five dollars per week. Eats are no higher than in northern cities, if you furnish your own teeth.

Green Bench Romances
Although the season is young, romances on the green benches, are already percolating. Six or more women for every man, make it interesting, but there is no hair pulling. Few women would care to destroy their "permanents", no matter how strongly they yearned for the caresses of a mere man.

Smart women find that it pays to keep their eyes peeled for a "lonesome" looking man. One with the corners of his mouth turned down, and ears drooping. There is probably no more dejected human than the lonesome man. He is like a blind man amid beautiful landscapes and water-scapes; or a deaf man with a ring-side seat at Grand Opera. He lives in the past, has little hope for the future.

He comes to the green benches a cynic, but with a small spark of hope tucked under his necktie. The latest is the story of a lonesome man from Indiana, who worried himself to sleep on a green bench. Deep in slumber his teeth felt out. They were quickly retrieved by a watchful widow on an adjoining bench. Three weeks later they were married.

"Wish You Were Here"
Another lonesome man who killed time writing postcards with the familiar ending "Wish You Were Here", included a widow in his mailing list to home town folks. The next week she arrived here, bag and baggage. He was game, and embraced the cure.

Most of the widows and widowers; spinsters and bachelors, who come here seeking mates, have a curiosity to learn the financial conditions of persons with whom they get acquainted. Often this requires considerable tact. Here is the way a rich widow recently handled the situation. She had made the acquaintance of a stranger on the green benches. Friendship ripened into something worse. But when the question of finances was discussed, the woman played fox. "I'm really a poor woman," she told him, "but my strict economy I manage to get along. I like you, and am willing to contribute what I can toward a home." They sat talking for some time. Later he bid her "good night" at her hotel. That was the last she has seen of him. From these few examples of green bench romances, it must not be inferred that all the widows and widowers come here because they can't find anybody who will have them back home. Some are really telling the truth, when they say they have come for the sunshine.

Neither are all romances nurtured on the green benches. Some are bred in the hotels, and other out of the way places. Furthermore the benches are held down by thousands of mature married couples, who have retired from the business of raising families, to the peace and quiet of writing letters to sons and daughters back home.

Babies Are Scarce
Older people monopolize the benches so thoroughly, that they crowd off the younger folks who want to learn how to sit. One day recently I noticed a crowd around some object on a green bench, and pushed my way in. The attraction was a young mother with a blue eyed baby on her lap, and a cigarette in her mouth. The baby smiled as the mother blew smoke through her nose. It was an inspiring sight, and perfectly legal under the "Bill of Rights". Children in Florida don't get sleds for Christmas, because sleds won't run on sand. Santa Claus must change from sleigh to auto, long before he reaches here. He's getting old, and by the time he changes, his back aches, and his corns hurt his shoes. But he gets here just the same.

He finds the streets pretty much the same as up north: Brilliant lights, holly, evergreen. In the stores the wild-eyed customers gaze at this and that, and wonder if it would please their next of kin; and perchance may secretly wonder what they may likely get in return.

Girl scouts on the street, wrap parcels at so much per wrap. Post office employees cry for quarter, but are only pelted with tons of packages and greeting cards. No escaping the Christmas jamboree in the sunny south, any more than in the frozen north. Folks everywhere seem to be made out of the same kind of mud, but it is not all baked alike. So we uns down here say to you's up there "Merry Christmas."

Ellwood People Buy

Sale of Garden Court cottages by William A. Boomer to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Springer of Cleveland, O., and Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Barkley of Ellwood City, Pa., for $32,500 is reported here. I have not been able to learn whether the Springers sprung from an old family by that name in New Castle.

I was awaiting to look at the Pennsylvania book in the Chamber of Commerce, when a lady who had been ruminating in the same book, turned to me and asked: "Are you from Pennsylvania?" Bowing most politely, I replied: "Yes, madame, from New Castle, the best city in the state." Then I learned that she was a former resident of Ellwood City, where she married H. I. Todd. Her maiden name was Edith Jones, and her father was D. H. Jones, a contractor. Mrs. Todd said that before her marriage she had taught school in Koppel. I understand that she is now a widow. The incident illustrates how hard it is to get away from people of your own county.

People You Know

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rhodes of Berlin, Maryland, are here for the winter. Mr. Rhodes is a former New Castle boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Rhodes, of Highland avenue, the former now deceased.

Kenneth Fitch, another former New Castle resident, who has been assistant manager of Webb's big store, is critically ill, with little hope of recovery, according to information which I have received. So far this year there are not nearly as many New Castle people in St. Petersburg as in former years. Among those who are basking in the sun are the following: Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Patton, Miss Dorothy Gwynn, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reynolds; Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Allen, Mrs. John Sechler, Mr. and Mrs. Chester P. Reynolds and Mrs. Reynolds mother, Mrs. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Clements, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kirkwood, Fred Oddi, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Young, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Caldwell, Mrs. John Emery, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McKibben, Mr. and Mrs. James Cope.

From other places, Mrs. Louise Johnson, Volant; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Headland, Slippery Rock; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Harry, Mercer, formerly of New Castle; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Smith, Philadelphia, formerly of Wallace avenue, New Castle.

Everyone should have a hobby—it is relaxing after the day's work, and it may be a sustaining indulgence in later life.

Warren Business Man Will Speak At Youth Rally

Clifford James, Outstanding Business Man Of Warren, O., At Youth For Christ Rally

An outstanding testimony will be presented this evening at the New Castle Youth for Christ Rally in the First Baptist church, East street at 8 o'clock, when Clifford James, Christian business man of Warren, Ohio, speaks on "Spiritual Farming."

The speaker, who has many demands on his time for engagements, travels about the country and receives no remuneration for his work. He will tell how the crime problem may be solved.

A special program of music will be presented by the Youth for Christ Ensemble who will be heard in Christmas songs. The Lutz sisters will be heard in duet numbers. Rev. Howard Sartell, director of the movement will be in charge of the service.

Next week, the Bible students home on vacation will present a special program. Approximately 30 students will be on the evening program which will be the last one of the old year.

Third U. P. Church Candlelight Service

Mrs. Harry Wyman will serve as reader for the candlelight service which will be conducted Sunday evening, December 21, at 7:30 o'clock in Third U. P. church. During the service there will be pantomime scenes from the Nativity.

Music will be offered by a quartette, composed of John Kyle, Harry Wyman, Charles McMillen and Elmer Kanagy. Solos will be sung by Miss Marjory Graham, Miss Mary Eagleson, Miss Eleanor Book and Mr. Kyle. "The Coming of the King," a moving picture, will also be shown.

Hoover Heights Program Sunday

Bible school pupils of Hoover Heights Tabernacle will present a holiday entertainment Sunday evening, December 21, at 7:30 o'clock in the church. The program will consist of group singing, led by Arthur Hennon, superintendent, recitations, exercises and songs by the primary and intermediate departments. "The Road To Bethlehem," a pageant, will be given by the junior department, while music will be provided by a choir, composed of adult classes of the Bible school.

Mrs. Dale Hennon, Mrs. Hugh Guntrum, Mrs. F. C. Johannides and Mrs. Arthur Hennon are in charge of arrangements. Mrs. A. J. Goch will serve as accompanist.

Bessemer Group At County Home

Erecting New Memorial Window In Church

—New Castle News Photo

Workmen are shown above completing the installation of the new $2000 Memorial window in the First Christian church on the public square. Taken from the auditorium of the church, the window, a memorial to war veterans of the congregation, which faces the west, depicts Christ in a position of benediction as he represents the Biblical quotation "My peace I give unto you." An angel with raised trumpet is on either side of Christ. The window which weighs approximately half a ton will be dedicated at appropriate services on Sunday morning, December 28, by the pastor Dr. G. S. Bennett, at whose suggestion the design for the window was made.

Second U. P. Church Pageant On Sunday

A Christmas program of unusual beauty and solemnity is being planned for the Second church on Sunday evening, December 21, at 7:45 o'clock. The program will present pageantry, music, and scriptural reading in a setting of pine and lighted candles.

The manger scene will appear in tableau at the front of the auditorium, while a procession of shepherds, wise men, apostles, and missionaries will move from the stage on the left and render homage to the Christ Child. Included in the procession will be a group of 16 young people, wearing vestments and presenting the White Gift from the members of the congregation and Bible school. Special emphasis is being placed upon the White Gift which will be used to aid in the purchase of a $50,000 medical unit being provided for the suffering people of Pakistan.

Following this portion of the program, the entire audience will join in a candlelight service of dedication, during which 12 young women in white robes carry the light of the large candle, representing Christ, the Light of the World, to those present.

Vocal music for the service is under the direction of Mrs. Warren White, and will be provided by a children's chorus of approximately 50 voices and a men's quartette. Mrs. Clayton Cramer, the church organist, will be at the console, and Mrs. Harry Zimmerman will provide special piano music. Miss Peggy Weir will accompany the children's choir.

Mrs. John Ligon is directing the pageant. Other arrangements are in the hands of a committee, appointed by the Sabbath School association which is sponsoring the service.

A new star, discovered in September, 1945, is 80,000 times as bright as the sun, but it's 49,000,000,000,000 miles away.

Ministerium Plans Discussion Of City Religious Survey

A special meeting of the New Castle Ministerial Association has been planned for Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock, in the First Presbyterian church, North Jefferson at Falls street, when plans will be made for the city-wide religious survey which will take place in the city during the early part of January.

Ministers who are interested and not members of the association are invited to attend the meeting and join in the effort. Any questions concerning the survey will be answered at the meeting.

Originally the survey was to be conducted by the Methodist churches, but later was changed to include all the churches and denominations in the city. Several hundred workers will canvass the city and get vital information on church affiliation in the city.

St. John's Lutheran Christmas Services

Several services during the Christmas season have been planned for members of St. John's Lutheran church. "The Lord Is At Hand" will be the theme of the morning service Sunday, December 21, at 10:45 o'clock. An entertainment will be given Sunday evening at 7:45 o'clock by pupils of the Bible school.

A carol and candlelight service will be conducted in the sanctuary Christmas morning at 8 o'clock. The Lord's Supper will be observed Sunday, December 28, at 10:30 o'clock and in the evening at 7:45 o'clock.

School Choruses To Sing At Highland

Sunday afternoon, December 21, at 4 o'clock in the Highland U. P. church a combined chorus from Ben Franklin and Thaddeus schools will present the Christmas story. The vested chorus will be directed by Miss Esther Gibbons, with her sister, Mrs. Scott Richards, at the piano. A speech choir will be featured, and the program will be similar to those given in past years under the direction of these teachers; programs that have been most favorably received by the community.

This program was given last Thursday at the George Washington school, and at that time 150 young people were transported by bus. It is expected that 95 boys and girls from grades 3-9 will have part in the program Sunday afternoon, and they will again be transported by bus. These young people have been rehearsing for an hour each school day morning for the past three weeks. The directors have been assisted by Mrs. Mary McGee, Miss Ruth Garrity and Miss Marian Campbell. A free will offering will be taken to help defray transportation expenses.

South Side Church To Dedicate Cross

The F. H. C. class of the Bible school of the First Congregational church, Reynolds street, will present a beautiful illuminated cross at the Sunday morning service. The dedicatory service will be in charge of the pastor, Rev. Thomas J. Jones.

The class will attend in a body

First Methodist Service Wednesday

A beautiful service of worship will be held at First Methodist church on Christmas Eve, December 24, at 11:30 p. m. The choir of the church will bring special music, and all who attend will enjoy the opportunity of singing the fine old Christmas carols. The service will continue into Christmas Day and will be concluded with a beautiful candlelight service. Begin your Christmas Day in church.

Postpone Baptismal Service At Alliance Gospel Tabernacle

Due to unforeseen circumstances which have developed which will necessitate repairs or replacing of the baptistry at the Alliance Gospel Tabernacle, 210 Pearson street, no baptismal service can be held this week in the church.

The service was scheduled for last Sunday evening, but had to be postponed due to the trouble with the tank which developed. It was planned to have the baptismal service Sunday evening, but now it develops that the service will be postponed still further. Announcement will be made of the new date.

New "Look" At Miami Bathing Suits Is Price

By RUTH BRIGHAM
(U.S.S. Staff Correspondent)

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Dec. 20.—There was nothing new about the "look" at bathing suits shown on Miami Beach today but the price tags.

The men were still looking in the same old way at suits that looked about the same except for a little lift here and a big lift there.

It's back to Bikini for those too revealing suits. And as for those "shocking" numbers shown on the French Riviera in a national picture magazine recently, the city fathers took one look and howled: "No."

Police Chief Philip R. Short didn't even take a good look before he told the bathing suit representative, seeking permission to sell them, that they wouldn't do at all, at all.

Awful Scanty
Asked to describe the suits later, the chief laughed and said: "I couldn't do that, but they wuz awful scanty."

Legitimate suits—shown in the expensive Lincoln road shops—have price tags that ought to be illegitimate.

Miss Mary Lou Gorin of the the swank Milgrim's, proclaimed: "There's nothing new in bathing suits, but it just looks better this year."

And, she said, that's an "insider story"—told in the built-in bra and girdle suit, designed by Frances Sider. They do for the gals what Mother Nature didn't.

More Expensive
Suits at the majority of Lincoln road shops range in price up to a popular $50. Some are more expensive—a hundred or so—but they have proven unpopular not so much because of the cost as the glitter.

Miss Gorin said the gold and silver sequin suits just don't sell at Miami and Palm Beach.

The silk ones—around $49.95—do.

Styles run the gamut from the one-piece princess type for the modest miss to a saucy little can-can number that must have been inspired by Ringling Brothers, Barnum and Bailey's Circus this year.

They're polka-dotted and might be ruffled. When a reporter timidly asked Miss Gorin what happened to the fluffy ruffles when they hit the water, the latter queried:

"Water? What water?"

Then, enlightened: "Oh, for the girl who wants to swim we have suits, too. We have some plain ones for about $15."

Presbyterians Have Christmas Party

Congregation And School Join In Event: Have Play And Program: Treat For Kiddies

At the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church on Friday evening there was a joint congregation and church school Christmas party in the school room with about 140 present.

A splendid tureen dinner was served at 6:30 in the dining room; Rev. Howard A. Redmond, the pastor, gave the invocation. Tables were nicely decorated in Christmas theme.

In the church school room, a Christmas program was presented by a committee, headed by Mrs. Arthur Walker, with aides Mrs. E. O. Farver, Mrs. R. L. Drumheller, Mrs. C. Evan Campbell, Mrs. Walter Stone, Mrs. John Martin. Arthur Walker, church school superintendent, presided.

A play was given, entitled "Christmas Is A Comin'" by pupils of the beginners, primary, and junior departments. "Santa Claus," Harold Swisher, was well received, and did a nice job passing out candy and the annual Christmas treat to the kiddies.

There was group singing of carols led by the pastor, who also accompanied on the piano. Instrumental selections were also given by Bruce Brown at the piano, and Gloria Martin on the accordion. A number of youngsters gave recitations.

Auxiliary Plans Yule Party Sunday

Would Deprive All Murder Juries Of Fixing Penalties

Philadelphia Judge Angered At Slayer Of Officers Getting Life; Plans Action

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 20. — (INS)—A Philadelphia judge said he would seek legislation at the next session of the state General Assembly to deprive murder juries of the power to fix life or death penalties.

Judge Harry S. McDevitt, angered by a life imprisonment verdict returned by a jury of 10 women and two men in the cop slaying trial of William Halliwell, told reporters:

"This is the greatest miscarriage of justice I ever saw. Nothing justifies a life sentence for a murder such as this. This verdict says to the police force: 'Your life is worth nothing. Let them shoot you down. We will find some justification for it.'"

Convicted Twice
Halliwell has been convicted twice in the killing of two Philadelphia policemen and each time was given life.

Judge McDevitt charged that murder juries should be deprived of the power to decide between death and life imprisonment "since they do not know how to exercise
it."

He said that four Philadelphia juries have been shot to death this year but "not one of the killers has gone to the electric chair."

Earlier, one of the two male jurors on the panel which convicted Halliwell, John Christino, charged that women are "too weak-hearted" for murder juries.

Christ Methodist Annual Program

Before a large beautiful illuminated Christmas tree and other decorations in keeping with the Christmas spirit, the annual Christmas program and party for the Bible school and church members of Christ Methodist church was presented Thursday evening in the social room of the church, with Mrs. F. P. Sulmonetti in charge.

Carol singing was enjoyed with the Neighborhood House boys singing "Hark the Herald Angels" with prayer offered by Miss Christine Butler. As cornet solos, James Norge played "O Little Town of Bethlehem" and "Silent Night."
Miss Ethna Sulmonetti sang "Star of the East" with Mrs. Sulmonetti at the piano, following which Rev.
Sulmonetti spoke on the meaning of Christmas.

Before the fireplace, Mrs. Santa appeared as the poem, "Twas the Night Before Christmas" was acted and recited by Jane Stewart, Joan DeLuria, Louise DeLuria and Ethna Sulmonetti. Games were played under the leadership of Miss Mary Meta and Earl Sulmonetti with refreshments served and a treat of oranges, apples and candy given each.

A duet by Dr. E. S. Cooper and Rev. Sulmonetti was sung, with a Scripture calendar presented to each family. Hollis Burke aided in the service.

Graduate Nurses Aid Fund

Miss Betty J. Karner, left, studies the plans for the new wing at Jameson Memorial hospital while Miss Marie Seedor, right, signs her subscription card in the office of Mrs. Jane M. Geiger, seated, director of nurses. They are among the 64 graduate nurses on the Jameson staff who have raised $4,714 to name a semi-private room as a memorial in the new wing.

A total of $4,714 was raised this week for the Jameson Memorial hospital expansion fund by graduate nurses on the hospital staff.

The 64 nurses employed by the hospital participated 100 per cent in raising this amount to name a semi-private room as a memorial.
The entire community salutes these members of the nursing profession and the splendid example they have set. Campaign Chairman Alex Crawford Hoyt declared today.

"If anyone knows the desperate need for expansion of the hospital facilities in this area, the women whose duty it is to care for the patients certainly do."

"They see this community need at first hand every day, and their generous subscriptions point up more than anything could the conditions which have made this appeal necessary."

Those who participated in the raising of the $4,714 do not include students or private duty nurses at the hospital, Mr. Hoyt pointed out, but only the graduates employed as staff members.

Several of these members of the faculty of the school of nursing, joined the hospital staff only two months ago.

Chairman of the nurses' committee is Mrs. Jane M. Geiger, director of nurses, who has been at Jameson Memorial hospital since September.

Charges That TVA Bookkeeping System Deceives Congress

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20. —(INS)

—Rep. Dondero (R) Mich., chairman of the House Public Works committee, charged today that the Tennessee Valley Authority's bookkeeping systems "have been cumingly devised to deceive Congress."

Dondero said in a House speech that the TVA is appropriating millions of dollars from the Federal treasury for interest charges but by independent audits represents to Congress that it is a self-sustaining government operation.

He declared that the TVA by its bookkeeping seeks to "completely cover up the fact that it is and has long been completely bankrupt." He added:

"Stripped of all financial window-dressing, the TVA reports its revenue and its expenses without proper interest charges and calls the difference a net income. Inasmuch as all private corporations are compelled to report all debts, interest and other payments with exactitude, why not this government operation?"

Brothers Die On Yule Tree Hunt

HEPWORTH, Ont., Dec. 20. —

(INS)—Two brothers who set out in a blizzard Wednesday to find a Christmas tree for the annual party in their two-room public school, were found frozen to death in a marsh near this Bruce county village.

The boys were Robert Cogen, 13, and Donald, seven.

In the 16th century ball-playing was in great favor in the courts of princes, especially in Italy and France. Houses were built for playing in all weathers, and in gardens long alleys were laid out for the purpose.

Rocket Flights By Human Pilots Nearer Reality

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 20. —(INS) Man's goal of rocket flights is a step closer to reality today with the revelation he can stand terrific heat generated by high speeds.

Experiments on the Los Angeles campus of the University of California have shown that a human being can endure heat 38 degrees above the boiling point of water or 14½ minutes in a chamber heated to 250 degrees fahrenheit.

Conducting Tests
Dr. Craig Taylor, an associate professor of engineering and a trained psychologist is conducting the tests for the Air Forces. Said
Taylor:

"Part of man's fears of heat may be mental. Those indoctrinated in heat tolerances may be able to stay with a plane longer than was formerly thought possible and bring it in to a landing."

Taylor said that body temperature in 200 degree (plus) air temperature does not go much higher than 100 degrees. He explained:

"That is because the human body automatically strives to cool itself and becomes enveloped in a layer of cooled air."

Taylor said that in high speed a plane a fast comes from two sources. The friction of the surface of the plane hurtling through the air and in jet planes from air scooped into their ram ducts.

Convicted Ohio Slayer Will Be Put In Asylum

LIMA, O., Dec. 20. —(INS)—The defense claimed its first victory today in the fight to save a 42-year-old convicted slayer from Ohio's electric chair.

Allen County Common Pleas
Judge M. B. Jenkins allowed a motion last yesterday to commit Lester C. Nichols of Silver Lake, Ind., to the Lima state hospital for a 30-day observation period.

The judge denied another motion for modification of the verdict by a jury last week that Nichols is guilty of first-degree murder for the fatal shooting of his father-in-law, the Rev. Lewis Whittaker, in the latter's home at nearby West Newton last May 6.

'Nopes And Uhuh's' Heard Most On All Phone Conversations

CHICAGO, Dec. 20. —(INS)— Grunts and groans, "nopes" and "uhuh's" over the telephone were under the first of a speech scientist today.

Dr. Richard Reager, chairman of the speech and debate department of Rutgers University, lamented the sorry state of American speech in an address before the Illinois Dairy Products Association in Chicago.

He pointed out there are more than six hundred thousand usable words in the English language.

"But," he lamented, "the average working vocabulary is under five thousand words."

Britain To Get Austrian Wheat

LONDON, Dec. 20. —(INS)—Food Minister John Strachey told the House of Commons today that Britain has signed a contract with Austria for 80 million bushels of wheat from the 1947-48 crop.

It will not be unnecessary for Britain to import any American wheat from this year's crop. This will mean a saving to Britain of 120 million dollars.

President Asks For 17 Billions To Carry Out Marshall Plan

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—President Truman sent to Congress late Friday a four-year, seventeen billion dollar Marshall plan for Europe's recovery "to insure that there will never be a World War III."

Mr. Truman declared that failure to rebuild Europe may drive the continent to Communist "totalitarianism" in a "shattering blow" to world peace and stability. The President said the program is necessary to preserve America's own economic freedom.

Message of 9,000 Words

In a 9,000 word message to Congress, the chief executive proposed to launch the program April 1, 1948. He asked that six billion 800 million dollars be appropriated by that time to carry the plan through its first 15 months.

The President sent the message to Congress on the final day of the Special Session so the legislators could digest the program over the holidays and be ready to act when they return to the regular session Jan. 6.

Reviewing America's traditional interest in Europe's people on humanitarian grounds, Mr. Truman then set forth the administration's often-stated position on halting the spread of Communism. He said: "The economic plight in which Europe now finds itself has intensified a political struggle between those who wish to remain free men living under the rule of law and those who would use economic distress as a pretext for the establishment of a totalitarian state."

May Be Driven To Despair

"If Europe fails to recover, the people of those countries might be driven to a philosophy of despair—the philosophy which contends that their basic wants can be met only by the surrender of their basic rights to totalitarian control."

"Such a turn of events would constitute a shattering blow to peace and stability in the world. It might well compel us to modify our own economic system and to forego, for the sake of our own security, the enjoyment of many of our freedoms and privileges."

"Then, mentioning the Communists by name, Mr. Truman continued: "We must not be blind to the fact that the Communists have announced a determined opposition to any effort to help Europe get back on its feet."

"There will unquestionably be further incitements to strike, not for redressing the grievances of any particular groups, but for the purpose of bringing general chaos in the hope it will pave the way for totalitarian control."

$800,000,000 For Occupation
President Truman also made clear that the United States is determined to bind into the program the economy of western Germany, including the British and French zones. The amount requested for the first 15 months of the Marshall plan would be supplemented by an appropriation of 800 million dollars to pay for the occupation costs in the U. S. zone in Germany.

The President asked Congress to set up and give broad authority to a European Economic Cooperation Administration, headed by a $20,000-a-year administrator and a $17,500-a-year deputy.

The administrator would have wide powers to allocate funds, place orders for needed goods and arrange for their transportation but his authority would be subject to day-by-day approval by the National Advisory Council and, at a last resort, by the President.

Mr. Truman also asked for U. S. Special Representative w rank of ambassador to act "Chief of Mission" abroad.

He also asserted that the United States has sought to obtain "fair and workable" treaties of peace with former enemy states so they might rejoin the family of nations.

Already Costs Fifteen Billion

Noting that since the surrender of the Axis the United States has expended more than fifteen billion dollars to aid the victims of war, the President said:

"We must now make a grave and significant decision relating to our further efforts to create conditions of peace. We must decide whether we will complete the job of helping the free nations of Europe to recover from the devastation of war."

Mr. Truman reviewed the growth of the Marshall plan, now embodied in an "economic cooperation bill," from the proposal for cooperative effort set forth by the 16-nation Paris conference of last July. This program took note of the fact, he said, that the United States must provide most of the necessary outside aid.

Expect Other Nations To Aid

But, he added, other nations able to assist will be depended on to do so. He mentioned specifically the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development and private financing.

The President said the European nations would pledge themselves, to promote their own industry and agriculture, stabilize their currencies, reduce trade barriers, stimulate production of strategic goods which the United States needs, to use local currencies wherever possible, and to give full publicity to United States aid.

Admitting that the program will have an impact on United States economy, Mr. Truman called for some self denial by the American people.

He contended that the total cost will be only about five percent of the cost of the recent war effort and about three percent of the national income during the life of the program. He then said: "As an investment toward the peace and security of the world and toward the realization of hope and confidence in a better way of life for the future, this cost is small indeed."

Other Provisions

Mr. Truman supported various provisions of the bill submitted in his supporting documents. These included:

1. The transfer of some warbuilt excess merchant vessels from the United States to the participating countries;
  2. Procurement of raw materials from Western Hemisphere or other nations by the expenditure of dollars;
  3. Aiding in the stabilization of European currencies so that normal channels of trade can be resumed;
  4. Distinction between grants and loans to European beneficiaries, so that no excessive burden is placed on them.
- The plan for administration outlined by the President would make all operations subject to approval by the Secretary of State to assure that they are in line with United States foreign policy. This was taken to provide authority for the withdrawal of help from such nations as fall under Communist domination.

Many Christmas Events Scheduled In College Town During Week

NEW WILMINGTON, Dec. 20.—A series of Christmas programs in local churches was inaugurated this afternoon at the Neshannock Presbyterian church. All children of the church participated in a party directed by Miss Mary Katherine Bott. Miss Ruth Edeburn, Mrs. Paul Osborne and Mrs. Wallace McKean, teachers of the primary and junior departments.

A tableau, "The Christmas Story," will be presented at the Christian and Missionary Alliance church Sunday evening. Mrs. George Maxwell, Mrs. A. J. Hunter and Mrs. J. S. Dittmar are in charge of the program.

The United Presbyterian church will hold their program Tuesday evening at 8 A. play, "Why the Chimes Rang" will be presented by an adult cast with the dramatic parts in charge of Miss Mary Kissick and Miss Betty Yahn. James Ralston of the college conservatory and church music director, will have charge of special music.

A program entitled "Christmas Candlelight Service" will be given in the Methodist church at 7:30 p. m. Thursday. Mrs. L. J. Silman is in charge. Those who will participate are Mrs. Stella Morgan, Roland Robinson, Walter Shaffer, Bruce Cleal, Joseph Eckels, William James, Robert Whitman, Harold Burns, Mrs. Roland Robinson, Mrs. Walter Whitman, Mrs. C. D. Macomber, Mrs. Fred Rowland, Miss Helen Williamson, Mrs. Horace Sallade and Raymond Meek.

Miss Doinna Mae Cox will read "Church Without Lamps" and Miss Marilyn Hogan will sing a soprano solo. A trio composed of the Misses Carol Wilson, Marilyn Elder and Eleanor Burns will sing a special number.

About 35 members of the American Association of University Women attended the Christmas party held Thursday evening at College hall.

The program included a Christmas reading by Miss Marilyn Reeves of New Castle, a speech major at Westminster College, seasonal piano numbers by Mrs. Gilbert Taylor, and group singing of carols directed by Miss Ada Peabody.

It was decided to continue for another six months to support the Estonian student whom the group has been aiding. Dr. Myrta McGinnis presided at the buffet table.

The committee in charge was composed of Miss Corinne Mercer, Mrs. Wayne Christy, Mrs. William Hartwell, Dr. Myrta McGinnis and Miss Arleen Risher.

A Christmas party is planned by the American Legion and Auxiliary for Monday night at the Community house.

The program will present a short three act play, "The Night Before Christmas." In the cast are: Jacob Bumgardner, Mrs. Harry Coulter, Arthur Shaffer, Mrs. Bud Sharp, Ralph Buchanan and Martha Reaney.

Christmas carols will be sung by a quartet composed of Maxine Plotts, Alice Ann Ringer, Harry Suttle and William McLaughry. Miss Eleanor Burns will accompany the quartet at the piano.

Robert Whitman and Bud Spar will handle stage arrangements.

A dance will be held following the program. There will also be cards and refreshments served by committee headed by Mrs. Ralph Gilliland.

The Everready class of the Methodist church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Meek, Friday evening, for their annual Christmas meeting.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. William James, and Mrs. Emma Dicks. Mrs. Fred Williamson was in charge of devotionals.

Mrs. Hattie Johnson has been elected president of Harvester club. Mrs. Mabel Hamilton is the new vice president and Mrs. Dorothy Bishop is secretary-treasurer.

Truman Greet World Fliers

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—(INS)—President Truman on Friday congratulated the two young fliers who recently flew around the world in Piper Cub planes.

Clifford Evans, Jr., of Washington, D. C., and George Truman, of Los Angeles, who circled the globe in 124 days, called at the White House to meet the president.

Have Short Snorters
The fliers produced long "short-snorter" bills, made up of the different currency of the countries through which they passed on their flight, and the president signed them. Evans and Truman in turn signed the chief executive's short-snorter.

The president and George Truman talked briefly about their families, but could discover no relationship.

Evans commented that their 25-162-mile flight "beat only one record." He said they surpassed the around the world trip of Magellan who took over three years.

The average amount of money that the American people spend on books during a year is between 25 and 30 cents.

RECRUITING OFFICER ENJOYING FURLOUGH

Time Is Short To Send Money In Seal Drive

Those persons who have received Christmas seals and have not yet submitted their money for them were urged to do so today by Kenneth M. McLure, chairman of the Tuberculosis society drive.

It is desired that the large quota set be met to provide funds for this most worthy cause. It is Chairman McLure's wish to terminate the campaign as soon as possible.

Those persons who have not received their seals may obtain them at the society's offices, Lawrence Savings & Trust building, or by telephoning 4663.

The society wishes to thank all those who have aided in the 1947 campaign and wishes everyone a merry Christmas.

Bowlers Guests At Christmas Social

Ladies of the Castle Hills Bowling league were guests of Mrs. Max Ludwig for a Christmas party in a private dining room of The Castillon Thursday evening.

In one corner a lighted and festively trimmed Christmas tree was the feature of decorations, and a gift exchange among the group of 50 was carried out.

Card games were in play, with prizes going to Mrs. Elva McCandless of Ellwood City, Mrs. Lloyd Williams, Mrs. Charles Ward, Mrs. M. W. Cunningham of Bessemer, Mrs. George Wagner, Mrs. S. E. Patterson, Mrs. A. J. Paytas and Mrs. Irene Percie of Bessemer.

Door prizes were won by Mrs. Laura Miles and Mrs. R. E. Olson. A buffet lunch was served from a banquet table.

As a remembrance of the season the group gave the hostess an orchid corsage.

Aides were Mrs. Robert Magill, Miss Eleanor Bolinger, Mrs. Harry S. Wettich, Mrs. David Aston, Mrs. Russell Magill and Mrs. Lou Lautenslager.

More Duffle Bags Are Being Sent

Mrs. Fife, wife of Rev. John M. Fife pastor of Westfield Presbyterian church, called up county Sunday school headquarters that a duffle bag had been filled for overseas relief and that enough material was on hand to fill one or two additional duffle bags. She was told that additional duffle bags would be supplied.

Those not having duffle bags may put clothing, shoes, toys, etc., in cardboard containers and forward by parcels post to Church World Service Center, New Windsor, Md., to be processed before being sent to those in desperate need overseas.

BEAVER TWP.

Big Beaver Grangers will meet for their next regular meeting on Tuesday evening, December 23. The 1948 officers election will be installed by David F. Kyle, past pomona master and member of the North Beaver Grange, will be the installing officer. A vegetable soup supper and pie will be served.

Chalmers Pat McCready, Big Beaver Township young farmer, is resting as well as can be expected in the New Castle Hospital, where he was taken late Saturday afternoon, following an accident when his left hand became caught in corn husker rolls, severely injuring the hand and fingers.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brockman of East Palestine, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Duncan, of Little Beaver Township.

Twelve ladies who are members of the T.T.T. Club, enjoyed their annual turkey dinner and Christmas party, at the home of Mrs. Harold Enslin, Little Beaver Township, Friday, December 12.

Buddy Coblentz, who has been ill with pneumonia, at his home in Little Beaver Township, is improving.

Mrs. Elda McMillen has concluded a visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Russell, of Little Beaver Township, and has returned to the home of her daughter, in Beaver Falls.

Lineman Is Awarded Medal

George Maxwell, Pennsylvania Power company lineman pins an Edison Electric institute medal on Emerson M. Davies, a fellow lineman, during a ceremony at the Christmas party of the company, in The Cathedral. Maxwell was on a pole recently when he came in contact with a 4,800 volt wire. Davies broke the contact and applied artificial respiration while on the pole, saving Maxwell's life. Attention of his feat was called to the institute which awarded the medal to Davies.

Present Nativity At Wampum School

WAMPUM, Dec. 20.—The music department of the Wampum borough school presented the Nativity story, a musical program with a dramatic background, in the school auditorium on Thursday evening. The production was directed by Verna Weide and Temoy J. McFate.

The program included songs by the lower grades, girls trio number, mixed chorus numbers, instrumental selections, girls chorus, vocal solos and the dramatic sketch.

In the drama were Beverly Dripps, Mary Jane Miller, Joseph Kostor, Donna Galbreath, Doris Jean Gray, Audrey White, Carol Mohr, Mary Grekon, Edward Boyd, Earl King and Charles Kruger. Accompanists were Dorothy Jean Anderson, Maxine Thewes and Thelma Jackson.

Water Company Yule Party For Children

At the American Legion Home, North Jefferson street, employees of the New Castle Water company had a Christmas party for their children on Thursday evening, with about 60 present.

This was the initial meeting of the senior association of the Water Company employees, 10 in number, who have had over 20 years service with the company.

There was a lovely Christmas tree and other decorations. Santa Claus (William Mariacher) soon appeared on the scene and graciously distributed candy and gifts to the kiddies.

Splendid refreshments were served by the social committee. In charge of arrangements were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Moffatt, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kreuger, Mrs. Mildred Ramsey, Miss Grace Brown.

CHILDREN GUESTS OF ROTARY CLUBS

Hopping nimbly into the sleigh, he left, extending good wishes of the season to all.

Entertainment Given
Preceding his arrival, a program of entertainment was presented. Lewis C. Dayton introduced Mrs. John A. Panella, chairman, who, after a few words of welcome, in turn presented DeLace Cole, who put on a skit of humorous entertainment and introduced the performers.

The performance was highlighted by music and a show of magic by Carl Thayer local magician.

Musical Highlights
A group of solos by Miss Gertrude Ulrich opened the musical portion of the program, after which Frederick Ulrich sang a group of numbers, including "Silent Night" in German. Both were accompanied at the piano by Carlton Ferris, who also played the accompaniment as the group of Neighborhood House children, directed by John O. Huston, sang several Christmas carols.

Mr. Ferris and Mr. Huston then played two piano duet numbers. Immediately preceding Santa Claus' appearance, Miss Lucille Paisley, with Miss Lois Baum at the piano, sang a group of two solos.

Afterward Mr. Cole called on Mrs. E. L. Davenport, president of the Rotary Ann club, who spoke briefly and thanked the committee and performers for their splendid assistance in making possible the presentation of such an evening for the children. It was to Mrs. Panella and her committee that the success of the evening was so largely due, she said.

Gift To Misses Butler
She then presented the Misses Butler each with a check from the Rotary and Rotary Ann clubs. A former pupil, Miss Sara Othites at the Neighborhood House spoke briefly on what it had meant to her as a child.

Cakes and ice cream were served to the whole assembly and as the children left, each received several treats, a popcorn ball, candy cane, bubble gum, etc. Members on the transportation committee undertook to see each child safely to his home.

Santa Claus was portrayed by Richard E. Rentz.

Assisting Mrs. Panella with arrangements for the party were Mrs. John Offutt, Mrs. Thomas Foley, Mrs. Robert Moore, Mrs. Harry Bowen, Mrs. Alfred Teshen, Mrs. Carlton Ferris, and Mrs. George Ritter.

Iraq previously was known as Mesopotamia.

Activity Lull In Program Of United Nations

By JAMES L. KILGALLAN
(U. N. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Dec. 20.—The pre-Christmas holiday period descended upon the United Nations today, dropping activities at Lake Success to a new low point for the year. To all intents and purposes the U.N.'s work for 1947 was about over.

A Christmas party for children of men and women affiliated with the United Nations will be held at the Belmont Plaza in Manhattan this afternoon. A Christmas ball for members of the U.N. secretariat staff took place last night in the grand ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria.

The Security Council has recessed until December 30; the Atomic Energy Commission "sometime in January" and the Trusteeship Council until February 18.

Most important problem immediately confronting the U.N. is Palestine. British troops will be pulling out of the Holy Land early in 1948 so that evacuation can be completed by August 1.

Partitioning of Palestine into separate Jewish and Arab state is to be accomplished officially by October 1, 1948.

The U.N. has tentatively set January 7 as the date of the first meeting of the five-nation Palestine partition enforcement commission.

Three Judges Now Hold Fate Of Accused Dancer

By CARLOS TELLEZ
(U. N. Staff Correspondent)

HAVANA, Dec. 20.—The fate of nightclub dancer Patricia (Satira) Schmidt charged with the slaying of her lover John Lester Mee, is in the hands of three Havana judges, one of whom wept at her pleas for clemency.

At yesterday's final session of the sensational trial, the 22-year old Toledo, Ohio, entertainer told the court:

"I want to continue being a good daughter, rather than the criminal daughter of an honest father."

A court announcement said the trial had been "concluded for sentencing," but legal observers said that this did not necessarily mean that Patricia had been convicted.

They pointed out that in Cuban court procedure, the term "sentencing" refers merely to a court decision, and may involve either an acquittal or conviction.

It Patricia is to be freed, most observers feel the court will announce its action quickly. On the other hand, should one magistrate dissent, the tribunal may take several days to write a decision.

If sentence is not announced on Monday, then Patricia's future will not be known until January 6 when the court reconvenes after a Christmas recess.

ARE YOU SERVING TURKEY?

Turkey and chicken will deck the table for many Christmas dinners on Thursday. It is important that a few general principles be followed in preparing that bird if it is to be of most value, economically and nutritionally.

Before stuffing the bird rub the cavity with salt. If there is a great difference in the preference of the family, stuff the neck with one kind of dressing and the body cavity with another kind. Truss the bird and place it breast side up on a rack in a flat pan. Cover the bird with a clean cheese cloth moistened with melted fat. This helps keep the meat moist and tasty, and makes basting unnecessary. Roast it uncovered in oven of 300 to 325 degree Fahrenheit.

A roasting chicken requires 30 to 45 minutes per pound. The time required for a turkey depends on the size:

8-10 lb. turkey—20-25 minutes per pound
10-16 lb. turkey—18-20 minutes per pound

18-25 lb. turkey—15-18 minutes per pound.

The test for doneness is not pricking with a fork, but pinching the flesh part of the drumstick. If the flesh is soft and pliable, the bird is ready to be removed from the oven.

The giblets can be cooked separately and the broth used for gravy. A richer and better flavored turkey results if the flour is browned lightly before adding to the drippings. Two tablespoons of browned flour and 2 tablespoons of drippings and one cup of broth makes a medium thick gravy.

If you are buying a turkey but don't want a large one, you will be making a better purchase by getting half or a quarter of a large turkey rather than a smaller bird. The larger and better finished turkey or chicken gives a better proportion of meat to bone.

When roasting a part of a turkey or chicken, place the stuffing on a rack in a flat pan, place the bird over it, cut side down, and cover with the cheese cloth moistened in melted fat.

COLORFUL CRANBERRY A VERSATILE FOOD

Tradition links the cranberry with the holiday turkey but there are many uses for the colorful berry in everyday meals. A cranberry juice cocktail can start any meal.

A simple way to prepare the cranberry juice is to cook 2 cups of cranberries in 3 cups of water for 5 minutes. Strain, through cheesecloth and add ½ cup of sugar and 2 tablespoons of lemon juice. Boil 2 minutes, then chill. This makes enough juice for six generous servings.

Cranberries may be added to your favorite muffin recipe. Mix ¾ cup of chopped cranberries with 3 tablespoons of sugar and put in the muffin mixture.

A cranberry relish is just as delicious with roast pork or veal as it is with poultry. Put ½ pound of cranberries and 1 orange through the food grinder, using the fine knife. Add ¾ cup of sugar and chill an hour or longer. If desired, an apple may be ground with the berries and orange.

Refreshments that are sure to meet the approval of your guests are a colorful salad, hot rolls, and coffee. Here is a cranberry-chicken salad that is very nice:

For cranberry layer:
2 cups cranberry jelly,
½ cup water,
1 envelope plain gelatin,
2 tablespoons cold water.

Crush the cranberry jelly with a fork, add water, and heat. Soak gelatin in cold water 5 minutes and add to hot cranberry sauce. Pour into individual molds or a large ring mold which have been rinsed in cold water. Chill until firm.

For the chicken layer:
2 teaspoons plain gelatin,
½ cup cold water,
½ cup diced celery,

2 cups cold chicken (diced),
¼ cup finely diced green pepper,
½ teaspoon salt.

Soak gelatin in cold water 5 minutes, then dissolve over boiling water. Add chicken, celery, green pepper, and salt. Pour chicken mixture on top of chilled and firm cranberry sauce. When mixture is firm unmold on lettuce. Serve with mayonnaise either at side of small salads or in center of ring mold. Garnish with celery curls. — Serves 8.

PLAN BEFORE SPENDING TO AVOID MONEY WORRY

To provide for the security and happiness of your family and to be free from financial worry, consider a budget for 1948. One of the most successful ways to plan a budget is to hold a family council. This given all members a chance to discuss together what to provide for the family's needs, important to them. When the family is ready to agree on planning and carrying out a financial budget, you are at the pencil and paper stage.

If you know approximately what your income will be for the year, you can begin your budget by listing all the payments coming due, such as taxes, mortgages, insurance, and other fixed items for which you have agreed to pay. Check the dates when these are due.

If your income is regular you can begin by allocating so much money from each pay check to each of the fixed items so as to have the amount ready when it is time for the payment. If the income is irregular, make plans for these bills just the same.

After all fixed items have been taken care of, start building an emergency fund. When you have decided how much to put in the emergency fund from your income each month, you are ready to plan for the everyday living and future expenses.

Such expenses as food, clothing, household upkeep, medical service, recreation, education, and other things that add pleasure and profit to life are the ones usually scaled to come within the income.

Planning for future needs should be considered even though the present income seems barely enough to meet the family's needs.

A home account book is available through the Agriculture Extension Office, 206 Post Office Building, New Castle. There is a small charge for this book. The new year is a good time to start keeping an account.

SEAMAN VISITING PARENTS

Robert A. Johnson S/IC is on leave for 20 days, visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Johnson of R.D. 2, Seaman.

Johnson is now stationed at Norfolk, Va., having recently returned after spending three months in Panama. He is a graduate of New Castle high school.

Westinghouse Official Speaker At Holiday Event Of Organization At The Castleton

Suggestions from workers in industry was the subject presented to the Western Pennsylvania Personnel Association Friday night in The Castleton. It was the Christmas party of the association and a social program added to an interesting speaking program.

Principal speaker was Glen Mooney, head of the Suggestion Department of Westinghouse Electric Company. He told of the company's use of the suggestion service over the years and said that an employee was given a check for $5,000 just recently for a valuable suggestion he offered.

Kenneth Steffey of the Sharon plant of Westinghouse spoke and told of the success of the plan in Sharon. The program was handled by Dudley Arnold as toastmaster. E. R. Downing of Ellwood City is the president of the association.

Forty-Two Extra Sections In Use For Yule Travel

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 20. (INS)—The Christmas rush is over as far as the Pennsylvania railroad is concerned.

The carrier reported that it pressed 42 extra sections into service yesterday to accommodate holiday travelers, and said it thought the number would be the peak for the season.

Thirty-four extra sections will operate today, the railroad said, adding it can "haul anybody who wants to travel" this season.

BUILD SPEEDY SUBS

LONDON, (INS)—Naval research yards in Barrow-in-Furness, Lancashire, are planning to build ocean-going submarines capable of 30 mph underwater. These three times faster than normal submarines, according to the Daily Express, will be fitted with a new "quick get-away" unit invented by Dr. Randolph Walther, German U-boat scientist, now working for the British Admiralty.

MARGARET ORRES

Miss Margaret Orres of 207 W. Washington street has the distinction of being the only woman alderman in the state of Pennsylvania. She received her commission January 5, 1942, and has always held her minor court in the same location in the city.

Miss Orres was born in Johnstown, Pa., May 22, 1905, and lived there until she was 14 years old when her family moved to New Castle. Her father was transferred here by the National Radiator company in 1919.

"I have worked at a variety of jobs," the alderman explained, "but I got my best training for my present work when I served as a stenographer for Attorney Edwin Logan from 1926 to 1942."

"During that span I learned first hand the procedure of law and it was the best possible background for my work."

Miss Orres studied nights at the New Castle Business college to equip herself for stenographic work, and prior to going to work for Mr. Logan was in the office of the Koppel Industrial Car company.

She is a member of St. Mary's church and serves as secretary of the Lawrence county Minor Judiciary group comprised of aldermen of the community.

She has one sister living in the city, Mrs. John Cearfoss of S. Ray street, and three brothers, John Orres, R. D. 6; Joseph, Matilda avenue, and Edward, E. Reynolds street.

Charge Americans With Black Market

Army Orders Full Investigation Into Military And Civilian Personnel In Germany

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20. (INS)—The army has ordered a full investigation of charges that American civilian and military personnel in Germany have engaged in black market operations, customs violations and "similar misconduct."

An army announcement revealed that Army Secretary Royall has directed Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American occupation commander in Europe, to open an inquiry into charges.

Judge Assigned To assist in the investigation, Royall assigned his personal representative, Judge C. Earl Rives of Greensboro, N. C., who is now in Germany.

The army said that Rives will report directly to Royall "on the matter of the charges and any corrective action that has been or will be taken."

Although the army declined to disclose details of the charges, its announcement explained that they "parallel" accusations "received from time to time in the past."

Commercial production of oxygen from the atmosphere became a reality about 30 years ago.

Steelers-Eagles In Title Play-Off

Eastern Title On Line In Pro Contest Sunday

Sutherland Has Stronger Lineup; Must Halt 'Weavin' Steve' Van Buren

By NORMAN BAER
(International News Service Sports Editor)
PITTSBURGH, Dec. 20.—The Pittsburgh Steelers and Philadelphia Eagles today were finished with their workouts for tomorrow's Eastern Division play-off football game, in Pittsburgh.

Whichever team wins, it will be its first crack at the National League title when they face the Chicago Cardinals, also a first time winner, a week from Sunday.

In spite of all rumors to the contrary, both teams will be "70" for the play-off game. Practically every injured man will see some service.

The hopes of the Steelers will rest largely on a man who hasn't played in almost a month, Johnny Clement.

Mr. Zero carried most of the Pittsburgh offense during the regular season. Just how valuable he was shown in the last three Steeler contests which he missed. The Steelers lost the first two of these.

Have Bounced Back

The Eagles showed that they have resiliency by bouncing back from the Cardinal debacle to trounce the Green Bay Packers and qualify for the Steeler game.

In Steve Van Buren the golden boy of the Bayoues, they have probably the most explosive runner in football today. Steve, who set a new conference record for rushing this year, is a halfback who runs like a fullback. Stopping Van Buren is a definite must on the Steeler list if they are to win Sunday's fray.

A second man the Pittsburghers have to watch is the Eagles' all-arounder, Tommy Thompson. Tommy finished second to Washington's Sammy Baugh in the race for Eastern Division passing honors. Thompson is the man Coach Greasey Neale expects to exploit the supposed Steeler weakness on pass defense.

System War

Another aspect of Sunday's game is the now overplayed argument of single wing vs. the "T" formation. In recent years the advent of the "T" formation has been a challenge to single wing coaches. The play-off game will not determine which is the better system, but will furnish more fuel for the boys to argue about over the spring and summer.

Coch Jock Sutherland has always believed in the superiority of the single wing system. Neale on the other hand, has been willing to accept any system or plays that he feels will help him. At present the "T" suits Greasey best.

Horace Ashenfelter, Collegeville, Pa., who never ran a formal race until he entered Penn State college after the war, was named captain of the Lions' 1948 cross country team.

K. Pulaskis To Play Farrell Here Sunday

The four-game winning streak of the K. Pulaski "Big Five" will go on the line at the spacious Arena floor Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock when Coach Al Gonet sends his high-scoring flippers on the coast to face the strong Carpo-Russ team of Farrell, leaders of the Shenango Valley league.

In the Farrell lineup will be several well known stars to basketball fans here who played with Sharon and Farrell high school squads in recent years—Mike Zvarich, from the 1947 Sharon team; Spike Stupka of the championship Sharon team of 1942; Mike Skornach, former Farrell high luminary; Gene Hunia, Alex Chrobak, former Cincinnati University star; Henry Baron, a star at Alliance College, and many others.

Will Extend Pulaskis
Faced by that kind of a lineup, Coach Gonet was whimsical as he declared "we will be facing the toughest team we have met for years tomorrow afternoon, and we hope to make it five in a row, but we also look for trouble." The Carpo-Russ feature a fast-breaking offensive attack.

Harry Bell, defense star of the New Haven Ramblers of the American Hockey League, drives midget auto racing cars in the off-season and was the Saskatchewan champion in 1942-43.

The Carpo-Russ team is leading the tough Shenango Valley loop, made up of the best in the Sharon-Farrell and Sharpville district. Recently the Carpo-Russ team defeated the fast Cleveland Rosenbloss 56 to 48. They will play the Canton Cushites Monday at Farrell.

No Preliminary

Gonet announced that he will have his strongest material on the floor Sunday and may have a few surprises in the lineup, but would not reveal any names today. Wassek will be here and so will several other big names in district floor circles. A win over the Carpo-Russ team will be a big feather in the cap of the local semi-pro outfit.

There is no preliminary game Sunday, it was announced. Prices for the game will be right, Gonet stated.

Jeff Durkota Heads Browns' Draft Choices

CLEVELAND, Dec. 20.—(INS)—Jeff Durkota, 6-foot two inch, 210-pound wingback of Penn State University, is the first choice of the Cleveland Browns in the All-America Professional Football League draft.

Jeff Durkota
his system at Cleveland. Durkota scored 10 touchdowns for Penn State this season.

The Browns announced three other draftees as Dan Dworsky, Michigan center; Alex Sarkisian, Northwestern University center; and Dwight Deelman, Illinois halfback.

Dworsky and Sarkisian are eligible for the draft, since their classes have graduated. However, both have college eligibility remaining. Brown explained that no offer could be made to Eddleman, either, since he is trying to place on the U. S. Olympic team as a high jumper.

ELKS CLUB TOPS SIGMA NU, 78-58

'Bus' Davis Scoring Star For Elks, Krakowski Leads Sigs, Elks Reserves Win

Spearheaded by their sensational scoring star "Bus" Davis the Elks club five handed the strong Sigma Nu Fraternity team of Westminster College a 78 to 58 shellacking here last night at the Washington high gym. Davis accounted for 17 of the points with a brilliant exhibition of offensive fortitude.

The Elks led at the half 32 to 25. Other Elks stars besides the clever Davis were: Bob Pitzer, Fran Pitzer, Vinnie Kelly and Donnie Walters all with 11 points. Joe Krakowski led the Sigs in scoring with 14, followed by Chuck Elgin with 13, and Allison with 11.

In the preliminary game the "Dad" Patterson coached "Whizzers" looked the part of champs as they blasted the Sigma Nu reserves 48 to 32 under an avalanche of baskets. The Elks Reserves have dropped but one game this year that by one point.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 20.—(INS)—Scalpers were reported "cleaning-up" today on tickets for the Pittsburgh Steelers-Philadelphia Eagles game Sunday at Forbes Field to decide the Eastern Division championship of the National Professional League.

Steelers headquarters reported a complete sell-out of $40,000 seats, but in the downtown bars and hotels it was possible to get a few $4 tickets for $12 and up.

A kick-off time for the game approached, scalpers were expected to ask up to $40 for $4 seats.

East Brook Beats Plaingrove, 78-22

Continuing their explosive play in the county the East Brook high Eagles smothered Plaingrove last night in a return game, 78-22.

Don Smith dunked in 15 fielders and a foul to amass the season's highest total—31 points. Other big guns were Bob Smith, 14, Patterson, 11, and Mayberry, 12.

McCommon topped the Grove scorers with 9. The win was the Brookers' fourth in a row.

Belloise Wins Over Tommy Bell

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—(INS)—The theory that a good big man can beat a good little man was upheld today by Steve Belloise's victory over Tommy Bell, of Youngstown, O., in a 10-round bout at Madison Square Garden last night.

Belloise, veteran New York middleweight weighing 159½ to the welterweight's 146½, won a unanimous decision before 9,022 fans.

Belloise beat Bell at his own forte—counter punching. Steve made the negro lead in the early rounds and consistently beat him to the punch, flooring Tommy twice for counts of one each time.

Robinson Keeps Title By T.K.O.

DETROIT, Dec. 20.—(INS)—Ray (Sugar) Robinson retained his world's welterweight title today after scoring a sixth round technical knockout over Chuck Taylor in Detroit's Olympic last night.

Taylor was in Wornan's hospital in Detroit, where he underwent an X-ray examination this morning.

Dr. H. A. Lichtwardt said the young challenger suffered no serious injury and no surgery will be needed.

However, Taylor must stay in the hospital for "several days" for rest and observation of the kidney injury which he said occurred in the second round.

His condition was described a "very good."

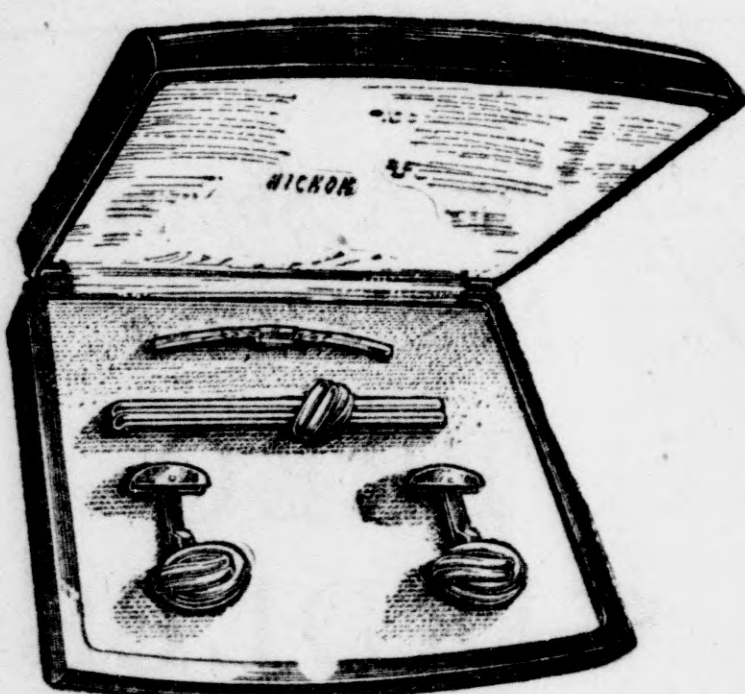

Robinson who took off seven pounds in five days to come in just under the division limit of 146½ yesterday, admittedly lost power during the fight, but his punching power seemed as potent as ever when he finally found an opening.

Taylor, who weighed 144½, forced the fighting in the early rounds but invariably was met by a two-fisted barrage from Robinson.

Midway in the sixth round Robinson sent a left hook to Taylor's body and then fired a right cross that sent the challenger down for nine. It was only moments before Robinson repeated the performance and sent Taylor down again.

As Referee Johnny Weber tolled off the count, Jack Laken, Taylor's manager, threw in the towel. Because throwing of the towel into the ring is not recognized as concession of defeat in Michigan rings, Weber continued the count until Taylor regained his feet at nine and then waved Robinson away. The finish was clocked at 2:07 of the sixth.

DRIVER IS HELD

Peter Melnic of Croton avenue was arrested by Policemen Tewell and Russo at 1:30 a. m. today following a collision between a truck and auto at East Washington and Harrison street. Chief of Police Robert D. Hanna stated he intends to charge Melnic with driving a car while intoxicated.

According to the police reports, the car which Melnic claims was driven by a man named "Carmen" of "Center street" struck a truck driven by Robert Arblaster, R. D. 5.

STEALS SHOE SHOP MONEY

Report was made to police at 1 p. m. Friday that someone stole $16 which was on the cash register of the Caravella shoe shop, North and North Mill streets.

NFL MEETINGS

Loop Moguls Wary Of Tipping Off
Player Selections To Rival
AA League

By JIMMY JORDAN
(International News Service Sports Writer)

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 20.—The secrets department of the National Football league was hard at work today.

Aside from the Washington Redskins and the Detroit Lions, the other teams of the league were more than chary in their efforts to prevent the rival All-America Conference just who had drafted whom in the annual selection of collegiate grid aces.

The Pittsburgh Steelers, tied for first place in the eastern division of the NFL, and the Green Bay Packers, down among the also-rans in the western division, wouldn't announce a single selection. Neither would the Los Angeles Rams.

Giants Pick Minis

The New York Giants announced one—Tony Minis, a halfback from Pennsylvania. The Giants, who finished first in the eastern division last year, floundered into the cellar this year, had first pick of a field of nearly 300 college stars listed for the draft.

The Chicago Bears, last year's league champions, also announced one pick—Knox Ramsey, a guard, from William and Mary.

The Chicago Cardinals, champions of the western division of the NFL, announced seven selections. Coach Jimmy Conzelman said his final pick was George Fisher of Notre Dame, a guard, who may or may not be eligible for pro competition next season.

Otherwise, the eight-hour night session in a Pittsburgh hotel was a dull affair. Observers stilled are wondering which team drafted Bobby Layne, the triple-threat sensation from Texas. His name did not appear on any of the draft lists made public by the league.

The closing day of "Homecoming Week" being held at St. Paul Baptist church will be on Sunday, December 21. At 3:30 p. m., Rev. W. L. Ingram of Cleveland, will deliver the first sermon ever preached in the present building. An award will be given to the one remembering the text of the sermon. Special music will be presented by G. J. Neal, Catherine Brown and Lucille Ingram, all of Cleveland.

A program, consisting of solos, readings and brief talks, will be given Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Church of God in Christ. The Pastor's Aid group is sponsoring the service.

Mrs. Mary Anwyl of Grant street is leaving for Washington, D. C. to spend the holidays with her son, Robert Anwyl.

Jameson Employees
Enjoy Annual Yule
Program, Dance

Employees of Jameson Memorial Hospital enjoyed their Christmas get-together in the nurses home Friday evening when a group of over 100 attended the annual occasion for which a special program had been arranged.

Carol singing led by Kenneth Smith with Miss Mary Lou Clever at the piano opened the evening's entertainment after which Hawaiian music was played by Mr. and Mrs. John Butch, Mrs. Georgia Megrail, and Paul Jones.

Hawaiian songs and dances were presented by Barbara Crowl. An added feature was tap dancing by Darlene Lesniak and Marcelene Evans.

Dancing to musical recordings furnished entertainment during the latter part of the evening.

Miss Charlotte Savage was announced as the winner of the door prize.

Refreshments were served from a table prettily appointed in red and white with Betty Bachman and Anastasia Barnes pouring.

Joe Davis was general chairman of arrangements.

POWER COMPANY
KIDDIES AT FETE

One hundred fifty children of Pennsylvania Power company employees this morning were guests at a Christmas party in the Service building, South Jefferson street.

Two Christmas trees were erected. The children received candy, fruit, pop corn and a song book. Arthur Guy played Santa Claus.

Those in charge were: Alfred E. Walker, C. H. Aubel, H. C. Knittel, W. H. Cummings, A. E. Herberg, Charles Meade, Paul Papenhausen, Audrene Gribble, Jean Cullford and Evelyn Bernine.

BUILDING HOMES

A. Gabriel was granted permission by the city to build a two-story brick home at 602 South Cascade street and similar permission was issued to Roy W. Warnock, to build a 1½ story frame dwelling at 1702 Carlisle street. The former will cost $8,000, and latter, $9,000, according to estimates.

MAKE THIS CHRISTMAS
A REALLY COMPLETE ONE

When you drive the family out to make Christmas calls, isn't it wise to be sure your car is functioning properly. Make this Christmas season a really complete one by making certain your car is in safe working order.

And while you are getting the car overhauled by our expert mechanics, you'll be getting it inspected also.

FOR A TRULY MERRY CHRISTMAS DRIVE WITH REGARDS FOR OTHERS

One accident can mar all your planning for Christmas gaiety. One moment's unsafe driving can turn somebody's home into a place of gloom instead of joy.

You cannot be sincere in your Christmas greetings if you drive unsafely. The Christmas spirit is a glorious thing, but don't try to mix Christmas "spirits" with gasoline.

If you must celebrate Christmas in an alcoholic fashion, leave your car in the garage.

Let's make this Christmas a truly merry one. And a safe Christmas is a merry one.
